Generation No. 1

1. GEORGE[1] CARRIKER was born 25 October 1752 in Philedelphia Co., PA, and died October 1836 in Heard Co., GA. He married (2) FRANCES LEE 08 April 1808 in Anson Co., NC.

Notes for GEORGE CARRIKER:
The Carriker info, in large, is the research of Mildred Watkins a Certified Genealogist whose was hired by Noah Thomas of LA and TX to try to solve the Jordan problem. She tried this by doing a lot of extensive research on the children and their spouses. As a result, we have a lot of extraneous info that your 'gut' tells you that you are in the neighborhood but we have yet, at this writing Jan. 1998, not solved the problem of proving that Benjamin Jordan is the father of these Jordans!!! Mildred has long ago died but fortunately I was able to make a visit to Noah Thomas' place in Shelbyville, TX. and copy the charts and etc that she had put into book form for her client, Noah Thomas. I assume that he is long dead for we have not heard from him in years. He was a cousin of Dan Boswell Jordan's, my husband, and had plenty of money to put into this project.

Yes, there is a bit of information in the book about Jacob Cariker (b. 10/14/1814, d. 11/17/1877).
Here goes:

He married Adeline Jordan, daughter of Benjamin Jordon on 1/25/1839. She was born about 1818 in Georgia and died 7/19/1879. Jacob followed the frontier and moved his family to Panola County, Texas about 1845. He settled on open land which later became a community with a school and a church constrcuted on land belonging to Jacob. Jacob named the community Clayton after one of his trusted slaves. The name stuck, and is called Clayton, Texas, today. Jacob and Adeline are buried in Clayton, Texas. They had 7 children.

The book then goes on to list the 7 children and their spouses.

Jacob was the son of John Cariker (b. 1875) and Frances Yarbrough.

John was the son of George Karcher, who was the son of Philip Karcher, Sr.

The book is title Carriker Karriker families / by John C. Karriker.

Yes, there is a lot of information in the book about Jacob Canker (b 10/14/1814, d. 11/27/1877).
Here's goes:

He married Adeline Jordan, daughter of Benjamin Jordan on 1/25/1843. She was born about 1818 in Georgia and died 7/10/1878. Jacob followed the border and moved his family to Panola County, Texas about 1845. He settled on open land which later became a community with a school and a church constructed on land belonging to Jacob. Jacob named the community Clayton after one of his trusted slaves. LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF

IN THE NAME OF GOD AMEN:

I, Lottie Hill, being of sound mind and disposing memory recognizing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, and desiring to make a division of my worldly effects and property, do make and publish this as my last will and testament.

Paragraph 1.

Reposing implicit confidence and trust in my beloved son-in-law O.D. Tucker and my beloved sons, Raymond Hill and Will K. Hill, I do nominate and appoint them as my executors, and direct that they shall qualify and serve as executors of this my last will and testament without bond.

Paragraph II.

I direct my executors to pay all my just debts and funeral and burial expenses.

Paragraph III.

I direct that my executors shall dispose of my two-story double tenement house and lot, situated upon and numbered 610 and 612 Thirs Street, Ok Oklahoma City, State of Oklahoma, and that they shall pay $1000.00 of the proceeds from the sale of said property to my beloved daughter, Mrs. M.H. Ready for 1/3 of your life?

by Miss Martha Lou Wilson & Carl C. Aven, M. D.

The Authors

MISS MARTHA LOU WILSON is an eighteen year old high school student from Alma, Georgia. She was a youth delegate to the White House Conference on Aging.

C. C. AVEN, M.D. is an eighty-six year old retired physician. He practiced in Atlanta for forty-five years and has served on many local, state, and national committies. He was a delegate at large representing the State of Georgia at the 1971 White House Conference on Aging.

Ready for 1/3 of your life?

Are you ready? One may ask "Who?" or "Ready for what?" The answer is: "You and your retirement." This much-used word is not even found in the Bible but it is a part of our lives non-the-less.

It is doubtful that you have made any preparation for retirement. It can be one of the most rewarding and satisfying eras of your life. Someday you, too, will be an elder citizen with leisure time.

The number of years available for retirement is rapidly increasing. Age fifty-five is now most frequently mentioned as the time to cease work. Also, increased longevity, a result of improved medical care, will soon add another whole decade to enforced unemployment.

So the question is asked. "What can I do with 30 years of leisure time, more than one-third of my whole life?" To complicate matters, there are 139 women to every 100 men in their retirement years. One-fourth of these live alone.

The needs of the aged are obvious. The problems of health, housing and income constitute the crucial triad of need among the elderly.

The recent White House Conference on Aging worked many long hours on these problems, but, even then, recommendations for long range planning policies were limited. What method of measuring stick should be used to determine time and money needed in these vital areas?

About one-fourth of all senior citizens live below the poverty level, yet 70% own their homes. Most of these homes are paid for.

How then do we eliminate poverty and malnutrition among the elderly? For instance, in Maysville, Georgia, there are 553 people. Eighty-five percent are retired, including seventy widows. Many of these women receive only $42.00 per month while just the water bill is $6.00.

Miss Wilson and I accept the challenge of change. Social, civic and financial problems call for your participation in an effort to a solution. Available methods and material, if properly applied in early life, would decrease or prevent many of the disabling and chronic diseases of the elder citizen. Some afflictions of the elderly are infectious diseases, malnutrition, obesity, hardened arteries and probably heart attacks. These physical infirmities cause mental and emotional stress as well. Many surveys indicate a great need for more and better health education. Here is the challenge in the schools and colleges.

Topics in need of more attention are proper nutrition, and ill effects of tobacco and alcohol. More stress should be put on exercise, sleep, recreation and other natural functions.

The family, the church, the schools, the community, and the government have all neglected their opportunities. The people's support of all these indicates some responsibility to the family unit. We believe the youth of our country need and deserve better direction and long term planning so as to avoid many of the hazards of the aging process. A process which begins at birth and continues until death.

Proper education of youth will prepare them for reducing dependency of the aged upon others. The young need to be given the chance to develop a philosophy of life for old age. They need to learn to accept living on a reduced income, and accept realistically the advantages and disadvantages of old age. Our society must cease its practice of committing elderly people to institutions. At times this action was taken for no more reason than that the elderly person went to the store and forgot the item they went for.

Dr. James C. Folsom, Deputy Commissioner of Health for Alabama and formerly the Director of the Geriatrics Division of the V. A. Hospital in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, had developed an amazingly simple technique to produce reality orientation in these people. Results have been most remarkable. Reports of Dr. Folsom's work are printed and available at the V. A. Hospital.

Today, in the course of their education, the youth proceed from one phase of life to another. Many go on to college, they graduate and begin a career. Little, if any, guidance is given to assist in their financial planning of, or development of a proper philosophy about, living in the latter years. The college graduate, with a diploma, job, wife and child is literally "dumped" into this depersonalized and crime ridden society. It is doubtful that he has any ideas or plans for that period of life which can be the most rewarding in his latter years.

The cost of this investment in youth would be infintesimal if parents could see the resulting happiness and peace of soul in the future of their children.

Education is very important to child and parents, but if they reach the three-score-and-ten-years without preparation for social, financial and philosophical attitudes, all may be lost. Money may be just a crutch and not the total answer. In my many years of contact with and study of senior citizens' problems I have observed some of the most miserable creatures among the most affluent. Some of the happiest, though, had a very limited income.

We are convinced that a philosophy of life satisfaction of the rich and poor can and must prevail.

The informing of school children in the process of aging would initiate family conferences and better planning. For emphasis, let us relate a case history of a father/son conference. The story is of a fifteen-year-old boy who kept asking his father for more and more allowance. Finally, the father sat his son down and said, "As your father, my compelling duty is to be frank and come to an understanding with you. My love for, and faith in you makes your future my profound interest. Money is necessary for you to complete your education. Let us have a mutual understanding. The facts are, I paid the doctor to deliver you, I have fed, clothed, housed and educated you so far. Money is ready for your college education, but these savings cannot be encroached upon for some unnecessary article you desire now. You are fifteen years old now, and I am 45. Ten years from now I will be 55, thinking of retirement, while you will be 25 with a college diploma, a job, a wife and probably a son of your own. It is your duty and my desire that you assume this great responsibility."

What did the son say? You guessed it. "What a change ten years can make!"

These remarks and observations will furnish some insight into the problems that can accumulate in a lifetime. Of course, some money is a prerequisite but the right philosophy is also essential for happy and rewarding latter years.

Good health habits in youth will usually prevail through life. Here is where education proves to be most productive. Good health habits pay enormous dividends. Professional educators are becoming steadily more aware of this. Here are some ideas. Teachers should stress such things as regular and nutritional meals, proper hours of sleep, exercise and recreation for all students.

These factors increase body resistance and thereby protect us against many illnesses.

There are many retired teachers whose dedication, experience and knowledge could be used in a program of this kind. There are many ways and approaches such as lectures demonstrations, visual and other means. A slide program depicting the stages of a student's life, ending with the predictable condition of retirement for the final one-third of his life would be effective. Professional teachers could prepare proper comments on these various events.

We do not approve of the total separation of the young from the old. The knowledge must come from the people who have lived long enough to have learned themselves. Proximity must command attention. There are many and various unexplored fields of teaching such courses in different age groups.

The use of high school students on various boards of directors and in many other capacities, advising and observing those who carry responsibility is not a new idea, but it is effective. We believe these high school students serving on boards such as United Appeal, church official boards, American Cancer Society, local TB Association and American Heart Association would make valuable contributions to both young and old.

Another suggestion we offer is to have P.T.A.'s request at least one program each year be given on retirement and income. This should be conducted by a well qualified person. Another idea is to have the children of the school develop and produce a program on aging or retirement for one P.T.A. meeting per year. To interest volunteer high school students, the faculty could let them make a geographic census to determine the number of widows living alone. The principal and teachers then should choose or assign a pair of these volunteers to go by that home after school each day to see if conditions are satisfactory, and submit a report. The visits should be daily since every now and then a widow living alone sickens or even dies with no one knowing it for several days. This could be a very practical course in the humanities.

A reassurance program in Cobb County, Georgia was arranged so that every day, at convenient hours (ten A.M. until noon) a widow could call the County police or sheriff's office and report "O.K." If no call was received from one of these people an officer was dispatched to the home for a check.

For many years I have been privileged to participate in various senior citizens' activities. I was one of the two physicians appointed to the AD HOC Committee from the Medical Association of Georgia. This committee worked with the Center for Continuing Education of the University of Georgia for about three years. Many meetings, seminars and discussions were held. By Presidential invitation I was a delegate-at-large from Georgia to the 1971 White House Conference on Aging. My participation in these programs coupled with my 20 years experience since age 65 makes me know that retirement and old age is a thing to be prepared for, not feared.

Miss Martha Lou Wilson, the co-author of this presentation, was also a delegate to the White House Conference. She has been an inspiration to me and, as a member of the Section on Education at the Conference, she gained much information and contributed much to this brief paper.

In this transient world, and especially here in America, all must learn to adapt to the constant changing of events, politics, home-life, information, science, and education. In order to live in this mobilized society, we must be adaptable to new conditions. Because life will not be the same tomorrow, we are required to introduce broad, imaginative innovations into our education.

In the August, 1971 Readers Digest Alvin Toffler, author of Future Shock, calls for a new sort of emphasis away from the traditional public school subject matter. Rather than education being organized only around language, mathematics, history, and such specific subjects he asks, "Why not around the stages of the human life cycle? Or around contemporary social problems? Or around 'the future of the family' or 'life-styles of tomorrow'?"

This clearly shows the usefulness of teaching about the aging process and retirement, thereby helping youth to establish a solid philosophy of living.

In order for young people to look forward to life after retirement, they must be personally exposed to the conditions of the elderly of today, and they must themselves make the moves toward what they want in the future.

These, then, are my suggestions for "improvements in the school curriculum.

(1) In elementary school, a subtle but solid inclusion of information about older Americans, for example, stories about grandparents, their lives, their retirement, their past-times, and such. Idealistically, the grandparents should be happy, have interesting hobbies and provide interesting and exciting experiences for the grandchildren.

(2) A beginning course in the life cycle. Not just stopping at adult maturity, but continuing throughout the life until old age and death.

(3) A health course suggesting the importance of nutrition and exercise. This could be included in the life cycle. Explaining that good nutrition, rest, and sufficient exercise are necessary throughout life, and most important in the later years. Really, all the previous years of health predetermine the condition of old age.

(4) In high school, elective courses should be offered in geriatrics and gerontology.

(5) A continuance of the health course should be offered, becoming more complicated and informative, with emphasis on the importance of good nutrition and exercise. The fact that the conditions of an 85 year old person (Dr. Aven, for example) depend almost totally on those 85 years of personal health habits should be the emphasis.

(6) Programs offered to the students in which the retired persons or widows be visited and studied. Case studies could be prepared and be followed through with regular visits to these people under observation. Dr. Aven has observed successful examples of this sort of inter-involvement.

(7) Films showing sympathetically, the actions and reactions of the young with the old and vice versa. For example, the movie "Kotch".

(8) In high school, the D.C.T. classes could become active in providing recreation, nutrition and other services for the older people as a paying job.

(9) In elementary school, a course given in mental health preparing the young student by helping him overcome the prejudices and preparing him to face maturity with the proper kinds of attitudes.

(10) Advanced courses in mental health, also providing information about growing old gracefully with the right attitudes toward life, and helping to overcome unnecessary and hurtful prejudices.

Miss Wilson and I have strong convictions that money and legislation are only a small part of the solution to these problems. We suggest that preparation for the last one-third of life be begun early in the first one-third, in the schools and colleges. The practical suggestions offered in the following statements gathered from business firms confirm our beliefs that the challenge is to America's educational system.

From reading and from personal interviews I have discovered that when a large corporation undertakes retirement orientation for employees aged sixty to sixty-five, their reaction is, "Why didn't you begin at age fifty?" Some companies expanded their programs to include all those above fifty. Then the employees would comment, "If I had begun this at thirty or thirty-five my preparation for retirement would have been better." This indicates to us that some orientation and preparation for the latter years should be undertaken in early school and college years.

There are happy and sacred moments in life. There are moments of uncertainty and dread. There are moments of challenge. There are moments of great opportunities and potential for good.

Finally, we suggest a committee on curricula from this group to give this matter serious consideration. A pilot is indicated. In this endeavor, as in all successful interpersonal innovations a certain trial and error period is almost inevitable. The Federal Administration on Aging is already a part of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. Undoubtedly funds for an immediate pilot program could be secured.

The oft quoted Robert Browning said it best.

> "Grow old along with me
> The best is yet to be,
> The last of life, for which the first was made."

This is our invitation to all the young people. You are growing older in spite of everything. Why not plan to do it gracefully.

The Farrar Family and Its Connections with the Jordan, Fore, Bell, Foster, and Hankins Families

Captain William Farrar[4], b. England, 1594–95; came to Virginia in 1618 on the ship Neptune; d. Charles City Co., Va., before 11 June 1637; m. prob. at "Jordan's Journey," Charles City Co., after March, 1623, Cicely Jordan, b. England, 1586; second wife and widow of Samuel Jordan. He came to Virginia in 1610 and she in 1611. Samuel Jordan represented Charles City Co. in the first legislative assembly in America, which met at Jamestown, Va., 30 July 1619. His will was probated probably in late March, 1623. His estate was administered by William Farrar[4], an attorney and magistrate for the "Upper Parts." The Muster of the Inhabitants of Charles City County dated 21 Jan. 1624 lists William Farrar and Mrs. Sisley Jordan and her daughters Mary Jordan, age 3, and Margaret Jordan, age 1. (pp. 209–10; Valentine Papers, pp. 761–2.) Samuel Jordan's plantation was located on the south side of James River, across from Berkeley. By 1623 it was known as "Jordan's Journey." (See Adventurers of Purse and Person, Virginia, 1707–25, p. 220; The Harrisons of Skimino by Harrison, pp. 20–24; Virginia Magazine, Vol. 7, p. 434.) Issue: William Farrar[5] and John Farrar[5].

Captain William Farrar[4] was a son of John Farrar[3], of Croxton, Lincoln Co., and later of London, England; m. 26 Aug. 1574, Cicely Kelk, dau. of William Kelk, of Barnaby, Lincoln Co. The will of John Farrar[3], dated 24 April 1628 and probated in London 28 May 1628, conveyed to his son William Farrar lands "in Hodesdon Bloxborne and Amwell in Hertford" and states, "My son William shall receive of my executor £50 at his return to England." Issue: Henry, John, William, and Humphrey. (See Virginia Magazine, Vol. 22, p. 398.)

John Farrar[3] was a son of William Farrar[2], b. about 1505; d. York, England, 1573; buried in church at Heptonstall; m. Margaret Lacy, dau. of Hugh Lacy, of Brearley. The will of William Farrar[2] was dated 28 Dec. 1572 and probated in York, England, 3 April 1573. Issue: 1. Henry; m. Ellen Blakley. 2. John. 3. Margaret. 4. Mary; m. Edward Wilkinson. 5. Ellen. 6. Hugh; m. Waterhouse. 7. Agnes.

William Farrar[2] was a son of Henry Farrar[1], of Ewood, Yorkshire, Midgley Township, Halifax Parish, England, and his wife Agnes Horsfall, of Southly. Henry Farrar[1] expressed a desire to be buried in the church at Heptonstall. His will was dated 25 June 1548 and probated in York, England, 26 Nov. 1549. (Vol. 13, p. 597.) Issue: William, Edward, John, Henry, and Agnes. (See Virginia Magazine, Vol. 59, Chart 10 following p. 129.)

John Farrar, of Hertford, England, had a son Nicholas Farrar, Sr., b. 1544; d. April, 1620; an eminent merchant of London and a leading member of the Virginia Company. In his will, dated 23 March 1619 and probated in London, England, 4 April 1620, Nicholas Farrar, Sr., provided £300 for "the erection of a college in Virginia." His son John, b. 1590, was also an active and influential member of the Virginia Company and in 1619–20 was its deputy treasurer. Some writers state that the father of William Farrar[4], the immigrant to Virginia, was Nicholas Farrar, Sr., the London merchant and native of Hertford. Others, including this compiler, believe his father was John Farrar[3], described above, whose will conveyed to his son William land at Hertford. Since both families have been traced to Hertford, England, very likely they were related. One writer stated, "Few persons rendered more eminent services to the infant Colony of Virginia than members of the London family of Ferrar, or Farrar, and few deserve to be held in greater honor." (See Virginia Magazine, Vol. 7, pp. 320–22, 432.)

Col. William Farrar[5] (William[4], John, William, Henry), b. Charles City Co., Va., about 1631; d. Henrico Co., Va., 11 Feb. 1677–78; m. Mary, of Charles City Co. On 11 June 1637 he received a grant of two thousand acres adjoining the Glebe land of Varina on the east, later known as Farrar's Island, Henrico Co. He represented Henrico Co. in the Virginia House of Burgesses, 1659–76. His will, dated 6 May 1676 and probated in Henrico Co. Feb., 1677–78, names his brother Capt. John Farrar and his sons William, Thomas, and John. Issue: 1. Major William; m. Priscilla Baugh and Mrs. Mary Lygon. 2. Martha; m. Walter Shipley. 3. Cicely.

[illegible] Thomas, m. Katherine Perrin. [illegible] John; m. Temperance Brown. (See Virginia Magazine, Vol. 8, pp. 97, 208, 426; History of Louisa County, Va., pp. 313–14; William and Mary Quarterly, Vol. 16 (2) Series, pp. 271–2.) 420

Thomas Farrar[6] (Col. William[5], William, John, William, Henry), b. Farrar's Island, Henrico Co., Va., about 1665; d. St. James Parish, Goochland (formerly Henrico) Co., 1742; m. 1686, Katherine Perrin, b. prob. Henrico Co., about 1667. Before 1727 Thomas Farrar moved his family to the western part of Henrico Co., later St. James Parish, Goochland Co., where his will, dated 8 Feb. 1740, was probated 15 June 1742. (Bk. 3, p. 561.) Issue: 1. Katherine; m. John Barnett, Sr. 2. Joseph. 3. John. 4. William was not mentioned in his father's will but reared a family in Goochland Co. 5. Martha. 6. Mary. 7. Sarah. 8. Perrin, b. about 1701; d. about 1712.

Thomas Farrar's wife Katherine was a dau. of Richard Perrin and Katherine Royall, dau. of Joseph and Katherine (Banks) Royall. In his will dated 1694 Richard Perrin mentioned his daughter Katherine Farrar and his grandchildren William and Sarah Farrar. Other issue of Richard and Katherine (Royall) Perrin: 1. Mary; m. Robert Napier. 2. Sarah; m. William Cocke in 1695. 3. Richard. 4. Ann. Joseph Royall, b. 1602; d. before 10 March 1655; m. Thomasin; m. (2) Ann; m. (3) about 1645, Katherine Banks, whose will was dated 10 Oct. 1686 and probated in Henrico Co. 1 Dec. 1686. Other issue of Joseph Royall: 1. Joseph, Jr., b. 1646; d. 1732; m. Mary Eppes. 2. Daughter; m. Dennis. 3. Sarah; m. John Wilkinson. 4. Daughter; m. Maschell. Joseph Royall, age 20, came to Virginia in the Charitie in July, 1622. He acquired a plantation along each side of the James River, known as "Doghams," which remained in the Royall family for two hundred years. (See Virginia Magazine, Vol. 8, p. 427; Vol. 32, p. 411; Adventurers in Purse and Person, Virginia, p. 383.)

William Farrar[7] (Thomas[6], William, William, John, William, Henry), b. Henrico Co., about 1693; d. St. James Parish, Goochland Co., 1744; m. Sarah. His will, dated 14 Nov. 1743 and probated in Goochland Co. 19 June 1744, names his wife Sarah and his sons Thomas, William, Richard, Joseph, and Perrin. (See Virginia Magazine, Vol. 9, p. 204; History of Louisa County, Va., pp. 313–14.)

Joseph Farrar[8] (William[7], Thomas, William, William, John, William, Henry), b. Goochland Co., about 1730; d. Goochland Co., 1777; m. Goochland Co., 23 Nov. 1755, Susannah Jordan, b. about 1734; d. after 7 April

1773, when she witnessed the will of John Stodghill (Goochland Co. Will Bk. 10, p. 376); dau. of Charles and Hellenah Jordan, of Saint James Parish Northam, Goochland Co., Va. Issue, all b. FARRAR AND JORDAN RECORDS IN GOOCHLAND COUNTY

At the Aug., 1766, court, Alexander McCaul filed suit against Joseph Farrar and Charles Jordan, Sr., for a debt dating from June, 1757. William Farrar made bond to the court to secure payment. (Bk. 10, p. 198.)

On 15 June 1751 Robert Hughes conveyed to Richard Farrar and his wife Elizabeth, all of Goochland Co., three hundred acres in Goochland Co., north of James River, on the branches of Tuckahoe Creek, adjoining the lands of Matthew Hutcheson, Chas. Johnson, William Ford, and Robert Cauthon. Witnesses: Will Farrar, Jos. Farrar, and Perrin Farrar, all brothers of Richard Farrar. (Bk. 6, p. 165.)

The will of Thomas Farrar, of the Parish of Saint James Northam, dated 17 April 1760 and probated in Goochland Co. 16 Sept. 1761, names his eldest son William, his last wife Elizabeth, his four sons by Elizabeth, and "all my children." Witnesses: Ralph Graves, David Huddleston, and Jos. Farrar, brother of Thomas. (Bk. 8, p. 190.) In Dec., 1761, the court named Charles Jordan an appraiser of Thomas Farrar's estate. (Bk. 9, p. 23.) On 3 Aug. 1779 twelve slaves of the estate of Thomas Farrar were divided among his children Joseph Farrar, Barrott Farrar, Robert Barnett, Mary Ann Farrar, and Christiane Ellison. (Bk. 12, p. 277.) In Feb., 1764, the court ordered the Church Wardens of Saint James Parish Northam to bind Joseph and Thomas, orphans of Thomas Farrar, deceased, to John Crouch. (Bk. 9, p. 262.) In April, 1770, the court ordered the same Church Wardens to bind Barrott, son of Thomas Farrar, deceased, to Joseph Farrar, most likely the brother of Thomas Farrar. (Bk. 11, p. 427.) In Dec., 1774, the court ordered the same Church Wardens to bind John, orphan of Thomas Farrar, deceased, to William Farrar, most likely the brother of Thomas Farrar. (Bk. 12, p. 452.)

Joseph Farrar's brothers Richard, William, and Thomas reared families in Saint James Parish Northam, Goochland Co. His brother Perrin moved to Louisa County, where he reared a family, probably at Farrowbank. His will was probated in Louisa Co. 16 Nov. 1785, when he was age 60. (See Virginia Magazine, Vol. 9, p. 321; Vol. 10, p. 86.)

The will of John Stodghill, dated 7 April 1773 and probated in Goochland Co. 16 Aug. 1773, was witnessed by Susannah Farrar, most likely the wife of Joseph Farrar, and by her brother Samuel Jordan. The will names John Stodghill's wife Elizabeth and his children Ambrose Stodghill, Mary Jordan, and Sarah Jordan. He appointed James Jordan as an executor. Mary Jordan's husband was Matthew Jordan, a brother of James, Samuel, and Susannah. (Bk. 10, p. 376.)

The will of Charles Jordan, "of the Parish of St. James Northam," Goochland Co., was dated 7 May 1773 and probated in Goochland Co. 16 May 1774. It conveyed to his wife Hellenah during her natural life furniture, stock, and seventeen slaves, to his son Charles a hundred and fifty acres "lying on Little Lickinghole Creek" in Goochland Co., and to his son William "the tract of land whereon I now dwell." He made lesser gifts to his children Elizabeth Sublet, James Jordan, and Matthew Jordan. Witnesses: Ambrose Stodghill, John Woodson, and Samuel Jordan, evidently his son. (Bk. 10, pp. 437–8.) His inventory was made 18 Oct. 1777 by Richard D. Hines, James Curd, and Joseph Woodson and was recorded 17 Nov. 1777. (Bk. 12, pp. 61–2.)

The court orders of Goochland Co., Va., for Oct., 1777, include the following:

> John Utley comes into court and makes oath that Joseph Farrar decd. died without any will as far as he knows or believes, and on his motion certificate is granted him for obtaining letters of Administration thereof in due form, John Woodson, Gent., entering himself security for the same. Ordered that Hugh Moss, James Jordan, Richard Davies Hines, and William Farrar, or any three of them . . . appraise the estate of Joseph Farrar decd. and that his administrator do return an inventory thereof to the next court. (Bk. 12, p. 506.)

The inventory of Joseph Farrar's estate was made 21 Nov. 1777 by William Farrar, James Jordan, and Richard D. Hines and was recorded in March, 1778. (Will Bk. 12, p. 113.) Most likely William Farrar was Joseph's brother and James Jordan his brother-in-law. John Woodson was his cousin. What family connection John Utley had with Joseph Farrar is not known. He may have been the husband of Joseph Farrar's daughter

Susannah. Joseph Farrar's son Charles was not then of legal age. Whether his wife or daughter was then living is not known. 423

On 15 Feb. 1779 Helenah Jordan, widow of Charles Jordan, Sr., and her son William Jordan, of Goochland Co., conveyed to John Ellis, Jr., of Henrico Co., a hundred and fifty acres in Goochland Co. adjoining the lines of the heirs of Thomas Farrar, deceased, and Anthony Martin, extending along Broad Branch to Tuckahoe Creek, "thence down the said Creek to the line of James Jordan, thence on his line to the line of the said heirs of Thomas Farrar, decd." (Bk. 12, p. 220.) Apparently this was Charles Jordan's home place "on Tuckahoe Creek," adjacent to the lands of his son James, Anthony Martin, and Thomas Farrar, brother of Joseph Farrar. This deed was executed during the Revolutionary War. Most of the children of Charles Jordan, Sr., and presumably his widow moved from Goochland Co. before or soon after this sale of the Jordan homestead.

On 17 Jan. 1777 Matthew Jordan and his wife Mary conveyed to Thomas F. Bates, all of Goochland Co., a hundred acres in Goochland Co., bounded on the east by the Glebe land, on the north by Charles Jordan's land, on the west by Col. Thomas Fleming's land, and on the south by the said Bates' line. (Bk. 11, p. 151.) Matthew was a son of Charles Jordan, Sr.

On 16 June 1777 Charles Jordan and his wife Martha conveyed to Thomas Fleming Bates, all of Goochland Co., a hundred and fifty acres in Goochland Co., "bound on the east by the Glebe land of the Rev. Wm. Douglas thence on the said Douglas's line to Meanley's land thence to the land of Col. Thomas Fleming thence on the said Fleming's line to the said Bates' corner on the land purchased of Martha Jordan." (Bk. 12, p. 1.) Charles was a son of Charles Jordan, Sr. It is noted that his land adjoined that of his brother Matthew and that both tracts adjoined the Glebe land of Rev. William Douglas, the land of Thomas Fleming, and that of Thomas Fleming Bates, purchaser of both tracts.

The will of James, son of Charles Jordan, Sr., was probated in Goochland Co. in Oct., 1781. He and his wife Sarah Stodghill had twelve children. His brother Samuel Jordan apparently died about the same time, for his widow married again in Fluvanna Co., 20 Sept. 1783, Benjamin Woodson. (See Valentine Papers, p. 1853; Virginia Baptist Register, No. 2, p. 54.)

Charles Jordan, Sr., was a vestryman in Dover Episcopal Church, Goochland Co., and resided near its minister, Rev. William Douglas, au-

Descendants of James Riggins

Generation No. 1

1. JAMES[2] RIGGINS (PETER[1]) was born Abt. 1780 in Possibly Galena, MD, and died Bet. Jun - Jul 1842 in Pike Co., GA[1]. He married MARY (AUNT POLLY) GARRETT Bef. 1806. She was born Abt. 1786 in MD[2], and died Aft. Jun 1860 in Pike Co., GA.

Notes for JAMES RIGGINS:
In the Pike Co., History book by Lizzie Mitchell, under the title "Local Town and Community Histories," Neal is a community/place name. Neal was first called Williamsville. The notation begins: Some of the prominent land owners in the community of Williamsville were: Joseph Williamson, whose wife was a daughter of Aunt Polly Riggins....

In the book History of Pike Co., 1822-1989, an article written by Robert F. Jones, Jr.: The story has been told that James and Polly had eleven children, four boys and seven girls, traveled from Maryland to South Carolina with only a cart, an ox, and a negro. The Riggins were in Putnam Co., GA as early as 1815. James made his first land purchase in Pike Co., in January of 1829. Their first cabin, which was about two miles south of Flat Shoals, was blown away by a storm, but with hard work James rebuilt their home which was still standing as late as the 1950's near where Cleggs Bridge spanned the Flint river. James' will was written on January 12, 1842, and probated on July 4, 1842. His estate was left to his wife Polly and their children. The children of this union married into the following families: Spear, Justice, Barker, Bagwell, Dominick, Pilkenton, Alford, Irvin, Daniel, Williamson, and Brown. It is interesting to note that twenty-seven of James and Polly Riggins' grandchildren fought in the Civil War. Two of James and Polly Riggins descendants who have been prominent in Pike Co., law enforcement in recent years are Billy and Astor Riggins.

Notes for ROBERT MONROE SR. PILKENTON:
History of Pike Co., 1822-1989: Because of his age Robert did not serve in the Confederate Army until the end of the war when every able-bodied man was needed. He joined Comp nay H. Cummings Battalion, Georgia State Troops 53rd Regiment, Semmes Brigade, Longstreet's Corp. Robert returned safely from the war but unfortunately his life ended abruptly when on 23 Nov 1868 he was murdered by John A. Dominick, the son of his second wife. The reason stated in defense was that Robert brutally and violently beat the mother of the accused. No evidence was ever produced to support the claim. John A. Dominick fled the state and the authorities were unable to locate him to bring him to trial. No further mention of the case appears in the court re cords, so it is to be assumed John Dominick was never apprehended or brought to trial.

She was born Apr 1848 in Thomaston, Upson Co., GA, and died 15 Mar 1937 in Garvin, McCurtain Co., OK.

Notes for WILLIAM HENRY C. WILLIAMSON:
According to the History of Pike Co., GA 1822-1932 by Lizzie R. Mitchell, T. J. (Thomas Jefferson) Williamson and his brother W.H. (William Henry) were wealthy cotton merchants of Atlanta.

USGenWeb Archives Pike County Newspapers:
Pike County Journal, Zebulon, GA - Tuesday, March 25, 1890: Home Affairs - We have learned that Mr. Henry Williamson who lives near Neal, and who has been in bad health for some time, was seen in a tree last week trying to hang himself. He was persuaded to desist, and on Wednesday night disappeared and no news of his whereabouts can be obtained.

Pike County Journal, Zebulon GA - Tuesday, April 1, 1890: Home Affairs - Up to this time, no news of Henry Williamson has been received. Where he could have gone is a mystery that is no nearer a solution today than when we announced his disappearance.

Later - Since the above was written we learn that the unfortunate man has drowned himself in the Flint River.

She married (1) THOMAS JEFFERSON SR. WILLIAMSON 02 Mar 1894 in Zebulon, Pike Co., GA, son of ZACHARIAH WILLIAMSON and MARY JORDAN. He was born 01 Nov 1874 in GA, and died 27 Oct 1951 in Leesburg, Camp Co., TX. She married (2) LEWIS LEAB (BIB) BIRDSONG 05 Mar 1900 in Pike Co., GA, son of EMMITT BIRDSONG and MOLLY HUNT. He was born Jul 1876 in Griffin, Spaulding Co., GA[23], and died 1934 in Rusk, Cherokee Co., TX.

Notes for THOMAS JEFFERSON SR. WILLIAMSON:
According to Doris Greer: Thomas J. Williamson first married his first cousin named Julia A. Williamson on March 2, 1894 in Zebulon, Pike Co., GA. Her father was William Henry and Thomas's father was Zachary Taylor. She and Thomas had a child named Emmett Eugene born Aug. 22, 1890 in Molena, Pike Co., GA. In my further research I found they had another child. His name was Carl, born Jan 1900 in Pike Co., GA. With a lot of figuring and double checking I discovered that Julia was 2 mos. pregnant with Carl when Thomas J. married grannie Ellen. It's unclear when he and Julia divorced. Grannie Ellen was 5 mos. pregnant with aunt Mollie when they married. So he had two women with child at the same time and two children born in 1900. I don't know how he kept from getting killed by some of the two ladies families. Grannie Ellen divorced him in 1918 and went to OK. They had moved to TX, I'm guessing from GA. From all accounts of family lore, he was a hard drinking man that would get very mean when drunk and beat her and the children. These folks all lived near Neal and Molena in Pike Co., Ga. before migrating to TX. He married a third time to a lady named Belle bn. Jan. 12 1889 and died June 27, 1957.

Notes for REBECCA ANN (ANNIE) (BECKY) HISAW:
Per Genell Smart, daughter of Addie Lee Hisaw Smart, she never heard her mother talk about Rebecca's marriage to James Parnell. During the summer of 1925 Uncle Frank Hisaw brought, Rebecca, Ruby, Everett and Ervin out to Texaco to visit them. She remembers that Rebecca took her own life not too long after she went home from visiting Addie's family. Addie did not go to the funeral. Genell remembers Aunt Annie looking so crest fallen, unhappy and quiet while there. Genell tried to be a good host to Everett and Ervin and making bubbling drinks "soda pop". She remembers they were all alone in the dining room and kitchen and they got a glasses and put water, sugar and vinegar in them and stirred it up and then added a little soda to make it fizz. They drunk it fizzing as they laughed and played.

Genell remembers when the telegram came telling of Rebecca's death the summer of 1925. Addie did not go to Rebecca's funeral.

vi. BERTIE MAE WILLIAMSON, b. 20 Jun 1910, Red Oak, Ellis Co., TX; d. 31 Oct 1917, Kaufman Co., TX.

Notes for BERTIE MAE WILLIAMSON:
Per Genell Smart Carver, daughter of Addie Lee Hisaw Smart (Rebecca's sister), Addie was present at the time Bertie Mae died. Rebecca "Aunt Annie", Bertie's mother, and Addie had been washing and boiling clothes in a big black iron pot outside and hanging clothes on the line to dry. They thought the fire was out and was resting under some trees then went into the house. Genell was about three and Bertie was seven, Genell's brother Captain Jack was six, Everett who was older than Genell were all playing outside. Ervin and her little brother J.B. were too young to play outside- she doesn't remember. The fire had gone down but still had some hot coals and somehow Bertie's dress caught on fire on the back side. Genell was near and saw Bertie afire. She doesn't remember moving or hollering, she was just transfixed. Bertie took off running when she felt the fire and started running around the house and screaming and ran back towards the front door. Rebecca and Addie heard the screams and ran out the back door. Addie ran to Bertie and fell on her and tried to rip the dress and clothes off of her. Aunt Annie was frozen and couldn't move. Addie mentioned later how little girl's dresses those days were all buttoned down the back. Addie had noticed that Bertie's dress was not buttoned straight and that little bit sticking out at the bottom more easily would catch fire. Addie and Rebecca made an old time plaster remedy of paste made with soda, flour, vinegar and lard and put it all over Bertie's body and wrapper her in a sheet. Addie had to run across a pasture to a neighbor's house where there was a phone and called the doctor who came to the house. Bertie lived for a few days before she died as a result of the burns.

She was born 07 May 1870 in Upson Co., GA, and died 10 Aug 1958 in Pittsburg Co., OK.

Notes for THOMAS JEFFERSON SR. WILLIAMSON:
According to Doris Greer: Thomas J. Williamson first married his first cousin named Julia A. Williamson on March 2, 1894 in Zebulon, Pike Co., GA. Her father was William Henry and Thomas's father was Zachary Taylor. She and Thomas had a child named Emmett Eugene born Aug. 22, 1890 in Molena, Pike Co., GA. In my further research I found they had another child. His name was Carl, born Jan 1900 in Pike Co., GA. With a lot of figuring and double checking I discovered that Julia was 2 mos. pregnant with Carl when Thomas J. married grannie Ellen. It's unclear when he and Julia divorced. Grannie Ellen was 5 mos. pregnant with aunt Mollie when they married. So he had two women with child at the same time and two children born in 1900. I don't know how he kept from getting killed by some of the two ladies families. Grannie Ellen divorced him in 1918 and went to OK. They had moved to TX, I'm guessing from GA. From all accounts of family lore, he was a hard drinking man that would get very mean when drunk and beat her and the children. These folks all lived near Neal and Molena in Pike Co., Ga. before migrating to TX. He married a third time to a lady named Belle bn. Jan. 12 1889 and died June 27, 1957.

Notes for CLAUDE W. WILLIAMSON:
Notes from Doris Greer: I remember Uncle Claude very well. He was a giant of a man standing well of 6 ft. and more with a big built frame. I don't think he ever married or had children. But he loved all us kids and would take us every year to town and buy us a suit of clothes. Us being me and my two bros. and sister and the children of Randolph Williamson, my dad's brother. His children being Helen, Marie, Robert and Randy. We could pick out whatever we wanted, but the girls had to get dresses. He said we should dress like litle ladies. Of couse we wanted pants but to him a little girl should wear a dress. He would always give us a big bear hug and pat you on the head everytime he'd see us. He was so powerful he'd nearly drive your head down in your shoulders, but we loved it and him. I remember one time I had a bad tooth and had to go to the dentist. I'd never been and was scared to death and crying. He gave me $10.00 if I wouldn't be scared and stop crying. That's the kind of gentle man he was. His nicknames were 1 God and Pie.

Notes for RUBY LEE WILLIAMSON:
Per Genell Smart Carver, daughter of Addie Lee Hisaw Smart, she was told by her mom Addie Lee that Frank Hisaw (Rebecca and Addie's brother) and Ruby were picking cotton in a field when he took advantage of Ruby. She was just an ignorant young girl. He talked his cousin, Coy Abbott, into marrying Ruby after she became pregnant.

Lubbock Morning Avalanche - March 20, 1928: Front Page: Wife Dies of Bullet Wound: "Accident" Says Husband; Girl, Age 18, Died In Hospital Here Monday Afternoon; 20 Year-Old Husband, A Farmer Near Brownfield, Tells Officers of Shooting Sunday Night. Says pistol trigger pulled unconsciously; Coy Abbott Taken Back To Brownfield by Officers; Wife Made No Statement To Officers. Coy Abbot, 20-year-old farmer living near Brownfield, yesterday afternoon made a statement to local officers in which he said that he accidentally shot his 18-year-old wife at their home Sunday night. Mrs. Abbott died of the wound yesterday afternoon at the Lubbock sanitarium. Abbott was arrested here by Deputy Sheriff Vernice Ford and Sheriff P.M. Ellington of Terry County after the death of Mrs. Abbott. Abbott at first said that his wife had shot herself accidentally, but after being questioned for four hours by Deputy Ford and Sheriff Ellington, he said that he had shot her. Abbott said that the shooting took place "between sundown and dark" on his farm about 16 miles from Brownfield. His first story was that he was cleaning out a bureau drawer, and asked his wife to hand him a .38 calibre pistol that was lying on the table. When she was doing this, he said the trigger of the gun caught in her dress and the gun was discharged, the bullet striking her in the abdomen. He later admitted that he had borrowed the gun from a neighbor, and had been playfully snapping the hammer while the gun was unloaded. Later he loaded it, he said, and had it pointed toward his wife when he unconsciously pulled the trigger. He then rushed out and called a neighbor, a Mr. Pollock, and the wounded girl was brought to this city. Officers said that Mrs. Abbott did not make any statement to them regarding the shooting, though she pistol wound in the abdomen received Sunday night, and as a result of which her 20-year-old husband faces a charge of murder, were held yesterday afternoon at Powell undertaking parlors, with interment in the Lubbock cemetery. Her husband, who faces charges of murder following his statement to officers that he accidentally shot her, arrived from Brownfield in company of Sheriff Ellington of Terry county in time to attend the burial services, and was taken back to Brownfield by the sheriff after the conclusion of the rites.

Sticks With Story: Sheriff Ellington said over telephone to The Avalanche last night that Abbott had not deviated from his story of the accidental shooting since he changed his original statement that the girl wife had shot herself accidentally. The shooting occurred in the farm home of the young couple 16 miles from Brownfield. The services yesterday were conducted by Rev. E.E. White, pastor of the First Methodist church here. Mrs. Abbott is survived by her husband, their two-year-old daughter, two brothers and two sisters. Her name before marriage was Ruby Williamson.

- pistol wound in the abdomen received Sunday night, and as a result of which he died at 10 o'clock Monday morning. Mr. Williamson was a prominent rancher in the Lubbock community. The husband, who from charges of murder following his statement to officers that he accidentally shot her, arrived from Brownfield in company of Sheriff Ellington of Terry county in time to attend the burial services, and was taken back to Brownfield by the sheriff after the conclusion of the rites.

Sheriff Will Sharp: Sheriff Ellington said over telephone to The Avalanche last night that Abbott had not divulged more than his story of the accidental shooting since he changed his original statement that the girl with her herself accidentally. The shooting occurred in the farm home of the young couple 18 miles from Brownfield. The services yesterday were conducted by Rev. E.E. White, pastor of the First Methodist church here. Mrs. Abbott is survived by her husband, their two-year-old daughter, two brothers and two sisters. Her name before marriage was Ruby Williamson.

He married (3) HELEN LOUISE PIERSON Feb 1942 in OK. She was born 27 Apr 1904 in Hamilton, TX, and died 02 Mar 1992 in Lexington, Cleveland Co., OK.

Notes for JOHN HENRY WILLIAMSON:
Cleveland Co., Record (OK Newspaper) dated 14 Nov 1990: Busy Corner Named After Slaughter Family - Years before anyone thought about incorporating Slaughterville, Jim Slaughter moved his family onto 160 acres at what is now 72nd Ave. SE and Slaughterville Road. They opened a store with two gas pumps on the northeast corner. It became known as Slaughterville Corner. The family has since moved away but the two-story home is still standing east of the highway on Slaughterville Rd. Jess Ketner ran a blacksmith shop next to the store which he worked right up to his death. He had the flu and went to shop to check on things. He promised his wife he wouldn't do anything but a customer came in and Ketner, not wanting to lose a customer, did some work for him. He died that night. Ketner's daughter, Barbara Coles, lives in Noble.

John and Helen Williamson bought the acreage in 1944. Williamson didn't like the way Norman and Lexington were annexing the area so he tried to incorporate the area. When his lawyer told him it would cost over $300, he decided not to pursue it. The area was annexed into Slaughterville on March 22, 1972. Other businesses that cropped upon on the corner were a motel, cafe and a beer joint. Williamson had a garage on the corner for a while. He also said there was a dance hall on the corner at one time. Helen Williamson didn't like anything about the beer joint. "I didn't Like the beer business so he moved me across the street." Helen said of the Williamsons moving their store across the highway. "I bet I wiped 20 gallons of blood in that joint," John said. "I got too old to fight so I sold it." They moved the store across the highway. It was a small building, about 14 by 24 feet. Under the side porch awning, the Williamson's sold the melons they had grown on their farm. Williamson sold the store to M.S. and Opal McCaslin. (Note: The Williamsons lived in Slaughterville for 40 years. Mrs. Williamson ran the Slaughterville Grocery for 40 years.)

Notes for CHARLES HENRY WILLIAMSON:
Charles was raised by foster parents Roy and Jesse Collins in OK City, OK. His mother Elsie died of leukemia. He did not know that John Williamson was his father. He was told that John was his Uncle John. He remembers meeting Frank Williamson when he visited him at the General Store in Shingletown in the mountains between 1941-1943. He only was Frank's couple of times he remembers his beautiful two-story farm house and the many places she hauled us to for horse lessons and for practice hunting.

Notes for CLARENCE ELMO WILLIAMSON:
From Reva Hance: Told to me by my aunt Ruth Yarborough. Stories told to her by Grandpa Williamson, her father. STORY: There was a red-headed woman that was the daughter of a black family that came from GA with grandpa Thomas Jefferson Williamson's family. Not known if they were slaves, free or what. Grandpa called her Aunt Lizzy. Her husbands name is forgotten. Grandpa said she would help deliver his mother's children and they lived near each other. Grandpa also had an Uncle Roe and Aunt Lizzy Manley that lived near or in Pittsburg, TX. He would always talk about their musical abilities and how all their children could play any musical instrument. He liked Uncle Roe's family very much.

90. CLARENCE ELMO WILLIAMSON (TWOWA ELLEN[3] WILLIAMSON[2], ZEPHANIAH ZACHARIAH ZATTOR[1], MILO ANN ROOKS, JAMES[2], PETER[1]) was born 18 Mar 1903 in Pittsburg, Camp Co., TX, and died 14 Jan 1976 in Visalia, Tulare Co., CA. He married IDEWA ELENA NAVE 14 Jan 1923 in Sulphur, Pittsburg Co., OK, daughter of ASA NAVE and AMANDA FRANK. She was born 13 Feb 1905 in Hugo, Choctaw Co., OK, and died 25 Apr 1962 in Cutchen, Kings Co., CA.

Notes for CLARENCE ELMO WILLIAMSON:
From News Times: Told to me by my aunt Ruth Verbowski. Stories told to her by Omaha Williamson, her father. STORY 1: There was a red-headed woman that was the daughter of a black family that came from GA with grandpa Thomas Jefferson Williamson's family. Not known if they were slaves, free or what. Omaha called her Aunt Lizzy. The husband's name is forgotten. Omaha said she would help deliver his mother's children and they lived near each other. Omaha also had an Uncle Ike and Aunt Lizzy Manley that lived near or in Pittsburg, TX. He would always talk about their musical abilities and how all their children could play any musical instrument. He liked Uncle Ike's family very much.

Notes for WILLIAM JASPER (JAP) NAVE:
Comments from Doris Greer: New source of further info: Mattie Nave, daughter of Mollie Williamson and Jasper Nave: Matie told Helen Williamson Butler that John Thomas Williamson and her father Jake (Jap) were on a troop ship headed overseas to WWI. John got sick with the 1918 influenza that was a worldwide epidemic and died aboard ship. Jap didn't know he had died until after the war and he was on the same ship. She told Helen that John was a very handsome young man, according to what she'd been told.

I, being Charlene, suspect he was shipped back to AR and then on to Pittsburg Co., Okla. for burial.

Descendants of James Riggins

Generation No. 1

1. JAMES[2] RIGGINS (PETER[1]) was born Abt. 1780 in Possibly Galena, MD, and died Bet. Jun - Jul 1842 in Pike Co., GA[1]. He married MARY (AUNT POLLY) GARRETT Bef. 1806. She was born Abt. 1786 in MD[2], and died Aft. Jun 1860 in Pike Co., GA.

Notes for JAMES RIGGINS:
In the Pike Co., History book by Lizzie Mitchell, under the title "Local Town and Community Histories," Neal is a community/place name. Neal was first called Williamsville. The notation begins: Some of the prominent land owners in the community of Williamsville were: Joseph Williamson, whose wife was a daughter of Aunt Polly Riggins....

In the book History of Pike Co., 1822-1989, an article written by Robert F. Jones, Jr.: The story has been told that James and Polly had eleven children, four boys and seven girls, traveled from Maryland to South Carolina with only a cart, an ox, and a negro. The Riggins were in Putnam Co., GA as early as 1815. James made his first land purchase in Pike Co., in January of 1829. Their first cabin, which was about two miles south of Flat Shoals, was blown away by a storm, but with hard work James rebuilt their home which was still standing as late as the 1950's near where Cleggs Bridge spanned the Flint river. James' will was written on January 12, 1842, and probated on July 4, 1842. His estate was left to his wife Polly and their children. The children of this union married into the following families: Spear, Justice, Barker, Bagwell, Dominick, Pilkenton, Alford, Irvin, Daniel, Williamson, and Brown. It is interesting to note that twenty-seven of James and Polly Riggins' grandchildren fought in the Civil War. Two of James and Polly Riggins descendants who have been prominent in Pike Co., law enforcement in recent years are Billy and Astor Riggins.

Notes for ROBERT MONROE SR. PILKENTON:
History of Pike Co., 1822-1989: Because of his age Robert did not serve in the Confederate Army until the end of the war when every able-bodied man was needed. He joined Comp nay H. Cummings Battalion, Georgia State Troops 53rd Regiment, Semmes Brigade, Longstreet's Corp. Robert returned safely from the war but unfortunately his life ended abruptly when on 23 Nov 1868 he was murdered by John A. Dominick, the son of his second wife. The reason stated in defense was that Robert brutally and violently beat the mother of the accused. No evidence was ever produced to support the claim. John A. Dominick fled the state and the authorities were unable to locate him to bring him to trial. No further mention of the case appears in the court re cords, so it is to be assumed John Dominick was never apprehended or brought to trial.

USGenWeb Archives Pike County Newspapers:
Pike County Journal, Zebulon, GA - Tuesday, March 25, 1890: Home Affairs - We have learned that Mr. Henry Williamson who lives near Neal, and who has been in bad health for some time, was seen in a tree last week trying to hang himself. He was persuaded to desist, and on Wednesday night disappeared and no news of his whereabouts can be obtained.

Pike County Journal, Zebulon GA - Tuesday, April 1, 1890: Home Affairs - Up to this time, no news of Henry Williamson has been received. Where he could have gone is a mystery that is no nearer a solution today than when we announced his disappearance.

Later - Since the above was written we learn that the unfortunate man has drowned himself in the Flint River.

She married (1) THOMAS JEFFERSON SR. WILLIAMSON 02 Mar 1894 in Zebulon, Pike Co., GA, son of ZACHARIAH WILLIAMSON and MARY JORDAN. He was born 01 Nov 1874 in GA, and died 27 Oct 1951 in Leesburg, Camp Co., TX. She married (2) LEWIS LEAB (BIB) BIRDSONG 05 Mar 1900 in Pike Co., GA, son of EMMITT BIRDSONG and MOLLY HUNT. He was born Jul 1876 in Griffin, Spaulding Co., GA[23], and died 1934 in Rusk, Cherokee Co., TX.

Notes for THOMAS JEFFERSON SR. WILLIAMSON:
According to Doris Greer: Thomas J. Williamson first married his first cousin named Julia A. Williamson on March 2, 1894 in Zebulon, Pike Co., GA. Her father was William Henry and Thomas's father was Zachary Taylor. She and Thomas had a child named Emmett Eugene born Aug. 22, 1890 in Molena, Pike Co., GA. In my further research I found they had another child. His name was Carl, born Jan 1900 in Pike Co., GA. With a lot of figuring and double checking I discovered that Julia was 2 mos. pregnant with Carl when Thomas J. married grannie Ellen. It's unclear when he and Julia divorced. Grannie Ellen was 5 mos. pregnant with aunt Mollie when they married. So he had two women with child at the same time and two children born in 1900. I don't know how he kept from getting killed by some of the two ladies families. Grannie Ellen divorced him in 1918 and went to OK. They had moved to TX, I'm guessing from GA. From all accounts of family lore, he was a hard drinking man that would get very mean when drunk and beat her and the children. These folks all lived near Neal and Molena in Pike Co., Ga. before migrating to TX. He married a third time to a lady named Belle bn. Jan. 12 1889 and died June 27, 1957.

Notes for REBECCA ANN (ANNIE) (BECKY) HISAW:
Per Genell Smart, daughter of Addie Lee Hisaw Smart, she never heard her mother talk about Rebecca's marriage to James Parnell. During the summer of 1925 Uncle Frank Hisaw brought, Rebecca, Ruby, Everett and Ervin out to Texaco to visit them. She remembers that Rebecca took her own life not too long after she went home from visiting Addie's family. Addie did not go to the funeral. Genell remembers Aunt Annie looking so crest fallen, unhappy and quiet while there. Genell tried to be a good host to Everett and Ervin and making bubbling drinks "soda pop". She remembers they were all alone in the dining room and kitchen and they got a glasses and put water, sugar and vinegar in them and stirred it up and then added a little soda to make it fizz. They drunk it fizzing as they laughed and played.

Genell remembers when the telegram came telling of Rebecca's death the summer of 1925. Addie did not go to Rebecca's funeral.

vi. BERTIE MAE WILLIAMSON, b. 20 Jun 1910, Red Oak, Ellis Co., TX; d. 31 Oct 1917, Kaufman Co., TX.

Notes for BERTIE MAE WILLIAMSON:
Per Genell Smart Carver, daughter of Addie Lee Hisaw Smart (Rebecca's sister), Addie was present at the time Bertie Mae died. Rebecca "Aunt Annie", Bertie's mother, and Addie had been washing and boiling clothes in a big black iron pot outside and hanging clothes on the line to dry. They thought the fire was out and was resting under some trees then went into the house. Genell was about three and Bertie was seven, Genell's brother Captain Jack was six, Everett who was older than Genell were all playing outside. Ervin and her little brother J.B. were too young to play outside- she doesn't remember. The fire had gone down but still had some hot coals and somehow Bertie's dress caught on fire on the back side. Genell was near and saw Bertie afire. She doesn't remember moving or hollering, she was just transfixed. Bertie took off running when she felt the fire and started running around the house and screaming and ran back towards the front door. Rebecca and Addie heard the screams and ran out the back door. Addie ran to Bertie and fell on her and tried to rip the dress and clothes off of her. Aunt Annie was frozen and couldn't move. Addie mentioned later how little girl's dresses those days were all buttoned down the back. Addie had noticed that Bertie's dress was not buttoned straight and that little bit sticking out at the bottom more easily would catch fire. Addie and Rebecca made an old time plaster remedy of paste made with soda, flour, vinegar and lard and put it all over Bertie's body and wrapper her in a sheet. Addie had to run across a pasture to a neighbor's house where there was a phone and called the doctor who came to the house. Bertie lived for a few days before she died as a result of the burns.

MARTIN. She was born 12 May 1921 in Pendleton, Pendleton Co., MS or Mentalum, Lauderdale, MS, and died Dec. 21 Jan - 17 Aug 1923 in Royse City, Rockwall Co., TX.

Notes for REBECCA ANN (ANNIE) (BECKY) HISAW:
Per Gerrell Smart, daughter of Addie Lee Hisaw Smart, she never heard her mother talk about Rebecca's marriage to James Purnell. During the summer of 1923 Uncle Frank Hisaw brought Rebecca, Ruby, Everett and Ervin out to Tilson to visit them. She remembers that Rebecca took her own life not too long after she went home from visiting Addie's family. Addie did not go to the funeral. Gerrell remembers Aunt Annie looking so over jolly, unhappy and quiet while there. Gerrell tried to be a good host to Everett and Ervin and making bubbling drinks "with pop". She remembers they were all alone in the dining room and kitchen and they got a glass and put water, sugar and vinegar in them and mixed it up and then added a little soda to make it fizz. Notes for [illegible] MAE WILLIAMSON:
Per Gerrell Smart Carter, daughter of Addie Lee Hisaw Smart (Rebecca's sister), Addie was present at the time Virgie Mae died. Rebecca "Aunt Annie", Virgie's mother, and Addie had been washing and ironing clothes in a big black iron pot outside and hanging clothes on the line to dry. They thought the little girl was playing in the nearby woods some then she went into the house. Gerrell was alone there and Virgie was across the road at Gerrell's brother Clarence's house visiting. Clarence was older than Gerrell was all playing outside. Irvin and Ervin were too young to play outside, she doesn't remember. The fire had gone down to just a little bit of coals and Gerrell's dress caught on fire on the back side. Gerrell was near and saw Virgie afire. She doesn't remember moving or holding, she was just terrified. Virgie took off running when she felt the fire and started running around the house and screaming and ran back towards the house where Ervin and Addie heard the screams and ran out the back door. Addie ran to Virgie and fell on her and tried to rip the dress and clothes off of her. Aunt Annie was frozen and wouldn't move. Addie remembered how her little girl's dresses flown like a parachute and ballooned down the back. Addie had noticed that Virgie's dress was not nearly straight and that little fit stickling out at the bottom more easily would catch fire. Addie and Rebecca made an old time plaster mixture of meal made with soda, flour, vinegar and lard and put it all over Virgie's body and wrapped her in a sheet. Addie had to run across a pasture to a neighbor's house where there was a phone and called the doctor who came to the house. Virgie lived for a few days before she died as a result of the burns.

41. THOMAS JEFFERSON 8 WILLIAMSON (ZACHARIAH ZACHARIAH TATTNALL, MARY ANN FORDES, JAMES,

PETER[1]) was born 01 Nov 1874 in GA, and died 27 Oct 1951 in Leesburg, Camp Co., TX. He married (1) BELLE. She was born 12 Jan 1889, and died 27 Jun 1957. He married (2) JULIA ANN WILLIAMSON 02 Mar 1894 in Zebulon, Pike Co., GA, daughter of WILLIAM WILLIAMSON and ELIZABETH NEWMAN. She was born 20 May 1873 in Pike Co., GA, and died 26 Apr 1961 in Rusk, Cherokee Co., TX. He married (3) ELLEN PILKINTON 23 Jun 1899 in Pike Co., GA, daughter of JOHN PILKINTON and SARAH TAYLOR. She was born 07 May 1870 in Upson Co., GA, and died 10 Aug 1958 in Pittsburg Co., OK.

Notes for THOMAS JEFFERSON SR. WILLIAMSON:
According to Doris Greer: Thomas J. Williamson first married his first cousin named Julia A. Williamson on March 2, 1894 in Zebulon, Pike Co., GA. Her father was William Henry and Thomas's father was Zachary Taylor. She and Thomas had a child named Emmett Eugene born Aug. 22, 1890 in Molena, Pike Co., GA. In my further research I found they had another child. His name was Carl, born Jan 1900 in Pike Co., GA. With a lot of figuring and double checking I discovered that Julia was 2 mos. pregnant with Carl when Thomas J. married grannie Ellen. It's unclear when he and Julia divorced. Grannie Ellen was 5 mos. pregnant with aunt Mollie when they married. So he had two women with child at the same time and two children born in 1900. I don't know how he kept from getting killed by some of the two ladies families. Grannie Ellen divorced him in 1918 and went to OK. They had moved to TX, I'm guessing from GA. From all accounts of family lore, he was a hard drinking man that would get very mean when drunk and beat her and the children. These folks all lived near Neal and Molena in Pike Co., Ga. before migrating to TX. He married a third time to a lady named Belle bn. Jan. 12 1889 and died June 27, 1957.

Notes for CLAUDE W. WILLIAMSON:
Notes from Doris Greer: I remember Uncle Claude very well. He was a giant of a man standing well of 6 ft. and more with a big built frame. I don't think he ever married or had children. But he loved all us kids and would take us every year to town and buy us a suit of clothes. Us being me and my two bros. and sister and the children of Randolph Williamson, my dad's brother. His children being Helen, Marie, Robert and Randy. We could pick out whatever we wanted, but the girls had to get dresses. He said we should dress like litle ladies. Of couse we wanted pants but to him a little girl should wear a dress. He would always give us a big bear hug and pat you on the head everytime he'd see us. He was so powerful he'd nearly drive your head down in your shoulders, but we loved it and him. I remember one time I had a bad tooth and had to go to the dentist. I'd never been and was scared to death and crying. He gave me $10.00 if I wouldn't be scared and stop crying. That's the kind of gentle man he was. His nicknames were I-God and Pie.

Notes for THOMAS JEFFERSON SR. WILLIAMSON:

According to Doris Greer, Thomas L. Williamson first married his first cousin named Julia A. Williamson on March 2, 1894 in Zebulon, Pike Co., OA. Her father was William Henry and Thomas's father was Zachary Taylor. She and Thomas had a child named Emmett Eugene born Aug. 22, 1890 in Malden, Pike Co., OA. In my further research I found they had another child. His name was Carl, born Jan 1900 in Pike Co., OA. With a lot of figuring and double checking I discovered that Julia was 2 mos. pregnant with Carl when Thomas L. married female Ellen. It's unclear when he and Julia divorced. Thomas Ellen was 5 mos. pregnant with Mollie when they married. So he had two women with child at the same time and two children born in 1900. I don't know how he kept from getting killed by some of the two ladies families. Thomas Ellen divorced him in 1915 and went to OK. They had moved to TX. I'm guessing from OA. Says pistol trigger pulled unconsciously; Coy Abbott Taken Back To Brownfield by Officers; Wife Made No Statement To Officers. Coy Abbot, 20-year-old farmer living near Brownfield, yesterday afternoon made a statement to local officers in which he said that he accidentally shot his 18-year-old wife at their home Sunday night. Mrs. Abbott died of the wound yesterday afternoon at the Lubbock sanitarium. Abbott was arrested here by Deputy Sheriff Vernice Ford and Sheriff P.M. Ellington of Terry County after the death of Mrs. Abbott. Abbott at first said that his wife had shot herself accidentally, but after being questioned for four hours by Deputy Ford and Sheriff Ellington, he said that he had shot her. Abbott said that the shooting took place "between sundown and dark" on his farm about 16 miles from Brownfield. His first story was that he was cleaning out a bureau drawer, and asked his wife to hand him a .38 calibre pistol that was lying on the table. When she was doing this, he said the trigger of the gun caught in her dress and the gun was discharged, the bullet striking her in the abdomen. He later admitted that he had borrowed the gun from a neighbor, and had been playfully snapping the hammer while the gun was unloaded. Later he loaded it, he said, and had it pointed toward his wife when he unconsciously pulled the trigger. He then rushed out and called a neighbor, a Mr. Pollock, and the wounded girl was brought to this city. Officers said that Mrs. Abbott did not make any statement to them regarding the shooting, though she (Page 6 - continued from page 1) was conscious until a few minutes before death. She was brought to the Lubbock sanitarium about about 12:30 A.M. yesterday. The couple have one child, a girl, about two years old. Shortly before Mrs. Abbott died she called her husband in the room and asked him if he would care for their daughter. Upon being assured that he would, she kissed him, dying a few minutes later. Abbott was taken to Brownfield last night by Sheriff Ellington. Funeral arrangements for Mrs. Abbott had not been completed, but she was probably be buried here today. Powell undertakers have charge of the body.

Funeral services for Mrs. Coy Abbott, 18, who died at a local sanitarium Monday afternoon from the effects of a pistol wound in the abdomen received Sunday night, and as a result of which her 20-year-old husband faces a charge of murder, were held yesterday afternoon at Powell undertaking parlors, with interment in the Lubbock cemetery. Her husband, who faces charges of murder following his statement to officers that he accidentally shot her, arrived from Brownfield in company of Sheriff Ellington of Terry county in time to attend the burial services, and was taken back to Brownfield by the sheriff after the conclusion of the rites.

Sticks With Story: Sheriff Ellington said over telephone to The Avalanche last night that Abbott had not deviated from his story of the accidental shooting since he changed his original statement that the girl wife had shot herself accidentally. The shooting occurred in the farm home of the young couple 16 miles from Brownfield. The services yesterday were conducted by Rev. E.E. White, pastor of the First Methodist church here. Mrs. Abbott is survived by her husband, their two-year-old daughter, two brothers and two sisters. Her name before marriage was Ruby Williamson.

60. JOHN HENRY[6] WILLIAMSON (JAMES MONROE (MON)[5], WILLIAM HENRY C.[4], MARY ANN[3] RIGGINS, JAMES[2], PETER[1]) was born 14 Sep 1903 in Hiram, Kaufman Co., TX, and died 26 Jun 1994 in Purcell, McClain Co., OK[49]. He married (1) BESSIE PARNELL[50,51] Abt. 1921 in TX, daughter of JAMES PARNELL and MARY GRAYER. She was born 24 Jul 1903 in Royse City, Rockwell Co., TX, and died Aft. 1957 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma Co., OK. He married (2) ELSIE LINDSEY Abt. 1936 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma Co., OK, daughter of GEORGE LINDSEY and UNKNOWN. She was born Abt. 1915 in TX, and died Bef. 1942 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma Co., OK. He married (3) HELEN LOUISE PIERSON Feb 1942 in OK. She was born 27 Apr 1904 in Hamilton, TX, and died 02 Mar 1992 in Lexington, Cleveland Co., OK.

Notes for JOHN HENRY WILLIAMSON:
Cleveland Co., Record (OK Newspaper) dated 14 Nov 1990: Busy Corner Named After Slaughter Family - Years before anyone thought about incorporating Slaughterville, Jim Slaughter moved his family onto 160 acres at what is now 72nd Ave. SE and Slaughterville Road. They opened a store with two gas pumps on the northeast corner. It became known as Slaughterville Corner. The family has since moved away but the two-story home is still standing east of the highway on Slaughterville Rd. Jess Ketner ran a blacksmith shop next to the store which he worked right up to his death. He had the flu and went to shop to check on things. He promised his wife he wouldn't do anything but a customer came in and Ketner, not wanting to lose a customer, did some work for him. He died that night. Ketner's daughter, Barbara Coles, lives in Noble.

John and Helen Williamson bought the acreage in 1944. Williamson didn't like the way Norman and Lexington were annexing the area so he tried to incorporate the area. When his lawyer told him it would cost over $300, he decided not to pursue it. The area was annexed into Slaughterville on March 22, 1972. Other businesses that cropped upon on the corner were a motel, cafe and a beer joint. Williamson had a garage on the corner for a while. He also said there was a dance hall on the corner at one time. Helen Williamson didn't like anything about the beer joint. "I didn't Like the beer business so he moved me across the street." Helen said of the Williamsons moving their store across the highway. "I bet I wiped 20 gallons of blood in that joint," John said. "I got too old to fight so I sold it." They moved the store across the highway. It was a small building, about 14 by 24 feet. Under the side porch awning, the Williamson's sold the melons they had grown on their farm. Williamson sold the store to M.S. and Opal McCaslin. (Note: The Williamsons lived in Slaughterville for 40 years. Mrs. Williamson ran the Slaughterville Grocery for 40 years.)

Notes for CLARENCE ELMO WILLIAMSON:
From Reva Hance: Told to me by my aunt Ruth Yarborough. Stories told to her by Grandpa Williamson, her father. STORY: There was a red-headed woman that was the daughter of a black family that came from GA with grandpa Thomas Jefferson Williamson's family. Not known if they were slaves, free or what. Grandpa called her Aunt Lizzy. Her husbands name is forgotten. Grandpa said she would help deliver his mother's children and they lived near each other. Grandpa also had an Uncle Roe and Aunt Lizzy Manley that lived near or in Pittsburg, TX. He would always talk about their musical abilities and how all their children could play any musical instrument. He liked Uncle Roe's family very much.

Notes for WILLIAM JASPER (JAP) NAVE:
Comments from Doris Greer: New source of further info: Mattie Nave, daughter of Mollie Williamson and Jasper Nave: Matie told Helen Williamson Butler that John Thomas Williamson and her father Jake (Jap) were on a troop ship headed overseas to WWI. John got sick with the 1918 influenza that was a worldwide epidemic and died aboard ship. Jap didn't know he had died until after the war and he was on the same ship. She told Helen that John was a very handsome young man, according to what she'd been told.

I, being Charlene, suspect he was shipped back to AR and then on to Pittsburg Co., Okla. for burial.

Notes for WILLIAM JASPER (JAY) NAVE:
Comments from Doris Greer: New source of further info: Mollie Nave, daughter of Mollie Williamson and Jasper Nave. Mollie told Helen Williamson Butler that John Thomas Williamson and his father Jake (Jay) were on a troop ship headed overseas in WWI. John got sick with the 1918 influenza that was a worldwide epidemic and died aboard ship. Jay didn't know he had died until after the war and he was on the same ship. She told Helen that John was a very handsome young man, according to what she'd been told.

I, being Charlene, suspect he was shipped back to AK and then on to Pittsburg Co., Okla. for burial.

Vivian, thank you for all the information. Some of the information I already have, but that just helps confirm the information. I corresponded with John Sauer several months ago when I first started researching the Riggins line but thank you for reminding me about him. I don't have a thing on Zachary Taylor Williamson and Mary Ann Jordan except that Zachary was born 1849 in Pike C., GA and died 1 Dec 1928 in Cook Co., TX. I don't have Mary's DOB or DOD or when and where they were married nor any info on any children. Here is the info I have on James and Polly Riggins that I gathered from James' will and other Riggin's researchers. Please let me know of any corrections.

Linda: You have made a connection! Your Mary A. Riggins who m Joseph Williamson is a sister of my husband's 3rd great grdmother 'Tersa'(Theresa Caroline) Riggins, who m (some say his first name was John) Thomas Barker in 1834 in Pike Co., GA. Her father was James Riggins, mother was Polly (Mary) no known last name. Jame's will, dated 1842 lists all his children. ELEVEN!! This you can find in Pike Co., GA Court House.

In 2001 I had corres. with John Sauer of Bellville, TX. & in his e mail he states that he had two Riggins boys marrying two Alford sisters in Pike Co., GA. Joshua H. Riggins m Winnifred Alford 20 Dec 1832 and James Jefferson Riggins m Nancy Ann Alford 13 Jan 1842. (Two brothers m two sisters) He noted that Joshua H and Winifred Riggins have a son named James J. Riggins. John Sauer's UHL is johnws@alumni.utexas.net. Hope it is still current. I assume that he is decended from Joshua.

In a "mug" book on Pike Co., GA is a short write up on the Riggins family by Robert F. Jones, Jr. He states that Theresa was one of eleven and that 'the story goes' that they came from MD. to SC with only a cart, an ox and a negro. They were in Putnam Co., GA as early as 1815 and James made his first land purchase in Pike Co. in jan of 1829. Their first cabin was built ca two miles south of Flat Shoals was blown away by a storm but James rebuilt and it was still standing in 1950. This is Cleggs Bridge which spanned the Flint River. My husband says that he has never heard of Cleggs Bridge but since he grew up on the Flint River that it was probably the Flint River Bridge by now. He was b in Warm Springs, GA but grew up in Molena, GA close to the Flint Rv. His Dad was the Station Master for the Southern Railroad in Molena.

Children of James and Polly Riggins: (from will)
Barthsheba (sic) m David Dominique
Mary m Joseph Williamson
Sarah
James Jefferson
William
Elizabeth m Joseph Spear
Matilda b 1806 m 27 Dec 1824 Newton Co., GA -James Justice
b 1793 GA son of John and ?Nancy? Justice.
(This list is from Thomas N. Justice 1800 Schley Ave. Albany, GA 31707-so Matilda must be his line as he knew details)
Theresa Caroline m 12 jan 1834 Pike Co. to Thomas Barker
Nancy m 22 Jan 1835 Pike Co., Blakely Bagwell
Joshua H. m 20 Dec 1852 Pike Co., Winifred Alford
Minton m 4 Dec 1837 Pke Co. to Mary David

Please let me know if there are errors and why you know they are incorrect....o.k.??? Haven't done that much personel research on the Riggins and have relied on others to a great extent. Please keep in touch. Do you know any more on this Mary Ann Jordan who m Zechariah Taylor Williamson????

Descendants of James Riggins

Generation No. 1

1. JAMES[2] RIGGINS (PETER[1]) was born Abt. 1780 in Possibly Galena, MD, and died Bet. Jun - Jul 1842 in Pike Co., GA[1]. He married MARY (AUNT POLLY) GARRETT Bef. 1806. She was born Abt. 1786 in MD[2], and died Aft. Jun 1860 in Pike Co., GA.

Notes for JAMES RIGGINS:
In the Pike Co., History book by Lizzie Mitchell, under the title "Local Town and Community Histories," Neal is a community/place name. Neal was first called Williamsville. The notation begins: Some of the prominent land owners in the community of Williamsville were: Joseph Williamson, whose wife was a daughter of Aunt Polly Riggins....

In the book History of Pike Co., 1822-1989, an article written by Robert F. Jones, Jr.: The story has been told that James and Polly had eleven children, four boys and seven girls, traveled from Maryland to South Carolina with only a cart, an ox, and a negro. The Riggins were in Putnam Co., GA as early as 1815. James made his first land purchase in Pike Co., in January of 1829. Their first cabin, which was about two miles south of Flat Shoals, was blown away by a storm, but with hard work James rebuilt their home which was still standing as late as the 1950's near where Cleggs Bridge spanned the Flint river. James' will was written on January 12, 1842, and probated on July 4, 1842. His estate was left to his wife Polly and their children. The children of this union married into the following families: Spear, Justice, Barker, Bagwell, Dominick, Pilkenton, Alford, Irvin, Daniel, Williamson, and Brown. It is interesting to note that twenty-seven of James and Polly Riggins' grandchildren fought in the Civil War. Two of James and Polly Riggins descendants who have been prominent in Pike Co., law enforcement in recent years are Billy and Astor Riggins.

Notes for ROBERT MONROE SR. PILKENTON:
History of Pike Co., 1822-1989: Because of his age Robert did not serve in the Confederate Army until the end of the war when every able-bodied man was needed. He joined Comp nay H. Cummings Battalion, Georgia State Troops 53rd Regiment, Semmes Brigade, Longstreet's Corp. Robert returned safely from the war but unfortunately his life ended abruptly when on 23 Nov 1868 he was murdered by John A. Dominick, the son of his second wife. The reason stated in defense was that Robert brutally and violently beat the mother of the accused. No evidence was ever produced to support the claim. John A. Dominick fled the state and the authorities were unable to locate him to bring him to trial. No further mention of the case appears in the court re cords, so it is to be assumed John Dominick was never apprehended or brought to trial.

10. WILLIAM HENRY C.[4] WILLIAMSON (MARY ANN[3] RIGGINS, JAMES[2], PETER[1]) was born 1843 in Pike Co., GA, and died 01 Apr 1890 in Flint River near Neal, Pike Co., GA. He married ELIZABETH FRANCES NEWMAN Abt. 1863 in Upson Co., GA, daughter of DAVID NEWMAN and NICY UNKNOWN. She was born Apr 1848 in Thomaston, Upson Co., GA, and died 15 Mar 1937 in Garvin, McCurtain Co., OK.

Notes for WILLIAM HENRY C. WILLIAMSON:
According to the History of Pike Co., GA 1822-1932 by Lizzie R. Mitchell, T. J. (Thomas Jefferson) Williamson and his brother W.H. (William Henry) were wealthy cotton merchants of Atlanta.

USGenWeb Archives Pike County Newspapers:
Pike County Journal, Zebulon, GA - Tuesday, March 25, 1890: Home Affairs - We have learned that Mr. Henry Williamson who lives near Neal, and who has been in bad health for some time, was seen in a tree last week trying to hang himself. He was persuaded to desist, and on Wednesday night disappeared and no news of his whereabouts can be obtained.

Pike County Journal, Zebulon GA - Tuesday, April 1, 1890: Home Affairs - Up to this time, no news of Henry Williamson has been received. Where he could have gone is a mystery that is no nearer a solution today than when we announced his disappearance.

Later - Since the above was written we learn that the unfortunate man has drowned himself in the Flint River.

She married (1) THOMAS JEFFERSON SR. WILLIAMSON 02 Mar 1894 in Zebulon, Pike Co., GA, son of ZACHARIAH WILLIAMSON and MARY JORDAN. He was born 01 Nov 1874 in GA, and died 27 Oct 1951 in Leesburg, Camp Co., TX. She married (2) LEWIS LEAB (BIB) BIRDSONG 05 Mar 1900 in Pike Co., GA, son of EMMITT BIRDSONG and MOLLY HUNT. He was born Jul 1876 in Griffin, Spaulding Co., GA[23], and died 1934 in Rusk, Cherokee Co., TX.

Notes for THOMAS JEFFERSON SR. WILLIAMSON:
According to Doris Greer: Thomas J. Williamson first married his first cousin named Julia A. Williamson on March 2, 1894 in Zebulon, Pike Co., GA. Her father was William Henry and Thomas's father was Zachary Taylor. She and Thomas had a child named Emmett Eugene born Aug. 22, 1890 in Molena, Pike Co., GA. In my further research I found they had another child. His name was Carl, born Jan 1900 in Pike Co., GA. With a lot of figuring and double checking I discovered that Julia was 2 mos. pregnant with Carl when Thomas J. married grannie Ellen. It's unclear when he and Julia divorced. Grannie Ellen was 5 mos. pregnant with aunt Mollie when they married. So he had two women with child at the same time and two children born in 1900. I don't know how he kept from getting killed by some of the two ladies families. Grannie Ellen divorced him in 1918 and went to OK. They had moved to TX, I'm guessing from GA. From all accounts of family lore, he was a hard drinking man that would get very mean when drunk and beat her and the children. These folks all lived near Neal and Molena in Pike Co., Ga. before migrating to TX. He married a third time to a lady named Belle bn. Jan. 12 1889 and died June 27, 1957.

Notes for REBECCA ANN (ANNIE) (BECKY) HISAW:
Per Genell Smart, daughter of Addie Lee Hisaw Smart, she never heard her mother talk about Rebecca's marriage to James Parnell. During the summer of 1925 Uncle Frank Hisaw brought, Rebecca, Ruby, Everett and Ervin out to Texaco to visit them. She remembers that Rebecca took her own life not too long after she went home from visiting Addie's family. Addie did not go to the funeral. Genell remembers Aunt Annie looking so crest fallen, unhappy and quiet while there. Genell tried to be a good host to Everett and Ervin and making bubbling drinks "soda pop". She remembers they were all alone in the dining room and kitchen and they got a glasses and put water, sugar and vinegar in them and stirred it up and then added a little soda to make it fizz. They drunk it fizzing as they laughed and played.

Genell remembers when the telegram came telling of Rebecca's death the summer of 1925. Addie did not go to Rebecca's funeral.

vi. BERTIE MAE WILLIAMSON, b. 20 Jun 1910, Red Oak, Ellis Co., TX; d. 31 Oct 1917, Kaufman Co., TX.

Notes for BERTIE MAE WILLIAMSON:
Per Genell Smart Carver, daughter of Addie Lee Hisaw Smart (Rebecca's sister), Addie was present at the time Bertie Mae died. Rebecca "Aunt Annie", Bertie's mother, and Addie had been washing and boiling clothes in a big black iron pot outside and hanging clothes on the line to dry. They thought the fire was out and was resting under some trees then went into the house. Genell was about three and Bertie was seven, Genell's brother Captain Jack was six, Everett who was older than Genell were all playing outside. Ervin and her little brother J.B. were too young to play outside- she doesn't remember. The fire had gone down but still had some hot coals and somehow Bertie's dress caught on fire on the back side. Genell was near and saw Bertie afire. She doesn't remember moving or hollering, she was just transfixed. Bertie took off running when she felt the fire and started running around the house and screaming and ran back towards the front door. Rebecca and Addie heard the screams and ran out the back door. Addie ran to Bertie and fell on her and tried to rip the dress and clothes off of her. Aunt Annie was frozen and couldn't move. Addie mentioned later how little girl's dresses those days were all buttoned down the back. Addie had noticed that Bertie's dress was not buttoned straight and that little bit sticking out at the bottom more easily would catch fire. Addie and Rebecca made an old time plaster remedy of paste made with soda, flour, vinegar and lard and put it all over Bertie's body and wrapper her in a sheet. Addie had to run across a pasture to a neighbor's house where there was a phone and called the doctor who came to the house. Bertie lived for a few days before she died as a result of the burns.

41. THOMAS JEFFERSON SR.[1] WILLIAMSON (CHEWAHAH ZACHARY TAYLOR[2]), MARY ANN BROWN JAMES,

PETER[1]) was born 01 Nov 1874 in GA, and died 27 Oct 1951 in Leesburg, Camp Co., TX. He married (1) BELLE. She was born 12 Jan 1889, and died 27 Jun 1957. He married (2) JULIA ANN WILLIAMSON 02 Mar 1894 in Zebulon, Pike Co., GA, daughter of WILLIAM WILLIAMSON and ELIZABETH NEWMAN. She was born 20 May 1873 in Pike Co., GA, and died 26 Apr 1961 in Rusk, Cherokee Co., TX. He married (3) ELLEN PILKINTON 23 Jun 1899 in Pike Co., GA, daughter of JOHN PILKINTON and SARAH TAYLOR. She was born 07 May 1870 in Upson Co., GA, and died 10 Aug 1958 in Pittsburg Co., OK.

Notes for THOMAS JEFFERSON SR. WILLIAMSON:
According to Doris Greer: Thomas J. Williamson first married his first cousin named Julia A. Williamson on March 2, 1894 in Zebulon, Pike Co., GA. Her father was William Henry and Thomas's father was Zachary Taylor. She and Thomas had a child named Emmett Eugene born Aug. 22, 1890 in Molena, Pike Co., GA. In my further research I found they had another child. His name was Carl, born Jan 1900 in Pike Co., GA. With a lot of figuring and double checking I discovered that Julia was 2 mos. pregnant with Carl when Thomas J. married grannie Ellen. It's unclear when he and Julia divorced. Grannie Ellen was 5 mos. pregnant with aunt Mollie when they married. So he had two women with child at the same time and two children born in 1900. I don't know how he kept from getting killed by some of the two ladies families. Grannie Ellen divorced him in 1918 and went to OK. They had moved to TX, I'm guessing from GA. From all accounts of family lore, he was a hard drinking man that would get very mean when drunk and beat her and the children. These folks all lived near Neal and Molena in Pike Co., Ga. before migrating to TX. He married a third time to a lady named Belle bn. Jan. 12 1889 and died June 27, 1957.

Notes for CLAUDE W. WILLIAMSON:
Notes from Doris Greer: I remember Uncle Claude very well. He was a giant of a man standing well of 6 ft. and more with a big built frame. I don't think he ever married or had children. But he loved all us kids and would take us every year to town and buy us a suit of clothes. Us being me and my two bros. and sister and the children of Randolph Williamson, my dad's brother. His children being Helen, Marie, Robert and Randy. We could pick out whatever we wanted, but the girls had to get dresses. He said we should dress like litle ladies. Of couse we wanted pants but to him a little girl should wear a dress. He would always give us a big bear hug and pat you on the head everytime he'd see us. He was so powerful he'd nearly drive your head down in your shoulders, but we loved it and him. I remember one time I had a bad tooth and had to go to the dentist. I'd never been and was scared to death and crying. He gave me $10.00 if I wouldn't be scared and stop crying. That's the kind of gentle man he was. His nicknames were I-God and Pie.

Her father was William Harry and Thomas's father was Zachary Taylor. She and Thomas had a child named Hermon Eugene born Aug 22, 1899 in Mulene, Pike Co., OA. In my further research I found they had another child. His name was Carl, born Jan 1900 in Pike Co., OA. With a lot of figuring and checking dates I discovered that Julia was 2 mos. pregnant with Carl when Thomas L. married Granville Ellen. Thomas married Ellen and divorced. Granville Ellen was 3 mos. pregnant with aunt Mollie when they married. So he had two women with child at the same time and two children born in 1900. I don't know how he kept them getting along but by some of the two ladies families. Granville Ellen divorced him in 1918 and went to OK. They had moved to TX. He married Ellen OA. From all accounts of family, he was a hard drinking man and would get very rough when drunk and beat her and the children. Those folks all lived near Neal and Mulene in Pike Co., OA, before migrating to TX. He married a third time to a lady named Julia Ann. Dec. 12, 1899 and died June 22, 1951.

Notes for CLAUDE W. WILLIAMSON:
Mama was Doris Clayton Thomas. I remember Uncle Claude very well. He was a giant of a man weighing well of 6 ft and more with a big bulk frame. I don't think he ever married or had children. He loved all us kids and would take us every year to see an act or play or a suit of clothes. He being too and my two uncles and aunt would be in charge of Rhodes Williamson, my uncle Jackie Booker. We children being Hermon, Mabel and Bondy we could pick out whatever we wanted, but the girls had to get dresses. He said we should wear like the boys wear. Of course we wanted pants but as long a girls would wear a dress. He would always give us a big hug and put you on the hand everything he'd see us. He was so powerful he'd nearly throw you hand down in your shoulder, but we loved it and him. I remember one time I had a bad tooth and had to go to the dentist. We went back and was asked to drink and crying. He gave me $10.00 if I wouldn't be scared and stop crying. That's the kind of person he was to us. His nicknames were I-Cod and Pig.

Notes for RUBY LEE WILLIAMSON:
Per Genell Smart Carver, daughter of Addie Lee Hisaw Smart, she was told by her mom Addie Lee that Frank Hisaw (Rebecca and Addie's brother) and Ruby were picking cotton in a field when he took advantage of Ruby. She was just an ignorant young girl. He talked his cousin, Coy Abbott, into marrying Ruby after she became pregnant.

Lubbock Morning Avalanche - March 20, 1928: Front Page: Wife Dies of Bullet Wound: "Accident" Says Husband; Girl, Age 18, Died In Hospital Here Monday Afternoon; 20 Year-Old Husband, A Farmer Near Brownfield, Tells Officers of Shooting Sunday Night. Says pistol trigger pulled unconsciously; Coy Abbott Taken Back To Brownfield by Officers; Wife Made No Statement To Officers. Coy Abbot, 20-year-old farmer living near Brownfield, yesterday afternoon made a statement to local officers in which he said that he accidentally shot his 18-year-old wife at their home Sunday night. Mrs. Abbott died of the wound yesterday afternoon at the Lubbock sanitarium. Abbott was arrested here by Deputy Sheriff Vernice Ford and Sheriff P.M. Ellington of Terry County after the death of Mrs. Abbott. Abbott at first said that his wife had shot herself accidentally, but after being questioned for four hours by Deputy Ford and Sheriff Ellington, he said that he had shot her. Abbott said that the shooting took place "between sundown and dark" on his farm about 16 miles from Brownfield. His first story was that he was cleaning out a bureau drawer, and asked his wife to hand him a .38 calibre pistol that was lying on the table. When she was doing this, he said the trigger of the gun caught in her dress and the gun was discharged, the bullet striking her in the abdomen. He later admitted that he had borrowed the gun from a neighbor, and had been playfully snapping the hammer while the gun was unloaded. Later he loaded it, he said, and had it pointed toward his wife when he unconsciously pulled the trigger. He then rushed out and called a neighbor, a Mr. Pollock, and the wounded girl was brought to this city. Officers said that Mrs. Abbott did not make any statement to them regarding the shooting, though she
(Page 6 - continued from page 1) was conscious until a few minutes before death. She was brought to the Lubbock sanitarium about about 12:30 A.M. yesterday. The couple have one child, a girl, about two years old. Shortly before Mrs. Abbott died she called her husband in the room and asked him if he would care for their daughter. 33. RUBY LEE[3] WILLIAMSON (FANNY HARRISON BOOKS, WILLIAM HENRY C.[1], MARY ANN[0] HOOTS) was born 21 May 1900 in Tyler, Smith Co., TX, and died 19 Mar 1922 in Lubbock, Lubbock Co., TX. She married COY LAFAYETTE ABBOTT[4] Abt. 1923 in TX, son of HIRAM ABBOTT and DORINE HIRAM. He was born 02 Apr 1903 in TX[4], and died 22 May 1956 in Los Angeles, Los Angeles Co., CA.

Notes for RUBY LEE WILLIAMSON:
Per Carroll Books Genealogy, daughter of Addie Lee Henry Brock, she was told by her mom Addie Lee that Ruby, Hiram Hickson and Addie's brother and Ruby were picking cotton in a field when he took advantage of Ruby. She was just an ignorant young girl. He raped her. Coy Abbott, her husband, was marrying Ruby when she became pregnant.

Lubbock Morning Avalanche - March 21, 1922 - Front Page: Wife Dies of Bullet Wound, "Accident" Says Husband; Girl, Age 18, Died in Hospital Two Months Afterwards 20 Years Old Husband, A Former Near Snyder Man, Tells Officers of Shooting Sunday Night. Says pistol trigger pulled unconsciously. Coy Abbott Takes Back To Jurisdiction by Officers, With Mrs. Ab Statement To Officers. Coy Abbott, 20-year-old farmer living near Dermott, yesterday afternoon made a statement to local officers in which he said that he accidentally shot his 18-year-old wife at their home Sunday night. Mrs. Abbott died of the wound yesterday afternoon at the Lubbock sanitarium. Abbott was arrested here by Deputy Sheriff Verdice Ford and Sheriff R.M. Billington of Terry County after the death of Mrs. Abbott. Abbott at first said that his wife had shot herself accidentally, but after being questioned for four hours by Deputy Ford and Sheriff Billington, he said that he had shot her. Abbott said that the shooting took place "between midnight and dark" on his farm about 12 miles from Dermott. His first story was that he was cleaning out a barrel of grain, and asked his wife to hand him a 38 million pistol that was lying on the table. When she was doing so, he said the trigger of the gun caught in her dress and the gun was discharged, the bullet striking her in the abdomen. He later admitted that he had borrowed the gun from a neighbor, and had been playfully swinging the hammer while the gun was unloaded. I.ater he located it, he said, and had a pointed reward for the wife when he unconsciously pulled the trigger. He then rushed out and called a neighbor, a Mr. Pollock, and the wounded girl was brought to this city. Officers said that Mrs. Abbott did not make any statement to them regarding the shooting, though she

(Page 6 - continued from page 1) was conscious until a few minutes before death. She was brought to the Lubbock sanitarium about about 12:30 A.M. yesterday. The couple have one child, a girl, about two years old. Strictly before Mrs. Abbott died she called for husband in the room and asked him if he would care for baby daughter. Upon being assured that he would, she kissed him, dying a few minutes later. Abbott was taken to Brownfield last night by Sheriff Billington. Funeral arrangements for Mrs. Abbott had not been completed, but she was probably be buried here today. Powell undertakers have charge of the body.

Lubbock Morning Avalanche - March 21, 1922 - Front Page: Murder Charge Is Filed Against Coy Abbott; Story Wife Young Husband Gave Not Deviate from Story That Shooting Was Accidental, Sheriff Says.
Funeral services for Mrs. Coy Abbott, 18, who died at a local sanitarium Monday afternoon from the effects of a pistol wound in the abdomen received Sunday night, and as a result of which her 20-year-old husband faces a charge of murder, were held yesterday afternoon at Powell undertaking parlors, with interment in the Lubbock cemetery. Her husband, who faces charges of murder following his statement to officers that he accidentally shot her, arrived from Brownfield in company of Sheriff Ellington of Terry county in time to attend the burial services, and was taken back to Brownfield by the sheriff after the conclusion of the rites.

Sticks With Story: Sheriff Ellington said over telephone to The Avalanche last night that Abbott had not deviated from his story of the accidental shooting since he changed his original statement that the girl wife had shot herself accidentally. The shooting occurred in the farm home of the young couple 16 miles from Brownfield. The services yesterday were conducted by Rev. E.E. White, pastor of the First Methodist church here. Mrs. Abbott is survived by her husband, their two-year-old daughter, two brothers and two sisters. Her name before marriage was Ruby Williamson.

He married (3) HELEN LOUISE PIERSON Feb 1942 in OK. She was born 27 Apr 1904 in Hamilton, TX, and died 02 Mar 1992 in Lexington, Cleveland Co., OK.

Notes for JOHN HENRY WILLIAMSON:
Cleveland Co., Record (OK Newspaper) dated 14 Nov 1990: Busy Corner Named After Slaughter Family - Years before anyone thought about incorporating Slaughterville, Jim Slaughter moved his family onto 160 acres at what is now 72nd Ave. SE and Slaughterville Road. They opened a store with two gas pumps on the northeast corner. It became known as Slaughterville Corner. The family has since moved away but the two-story home is still standing east of the highway on Slaughterville Rd. Jess Ketner ran a blacksmith shop next to the store which he worked right up to his death. He had the flu and went to shop to check on things. He promised his wife he wouldn't do anything but a customer came in and Ketner, not wanting to lose a customer, did some work for him. He died that night. Ketner's daughter, Barbara Coles, lives in Noble.

John and Helen Williamson bought the acreage in 1944. Williamson didn't like the way Norman and Lexington were annexing the area so he tried to incorporate the area. When his lawyer told him it would cost over $300, he decided not to pursue it. The area was annexed into Slaughterville on March 22, 1972. Other businesses that cropped upon on the corner were a motel, cafe and a beer joint. Williamson had a garage on the corner for a while. He also said there was a dance hall on the corner at one time. Helen Williamson didn't like anything about the beer joint. "I didn't Like the beer business so he moved me across the street." Helen said of the Williamsons moving their store across the highway. "I bet I wiped 20 gallons of blood in that joint," John said. "I got too old to fight so I sold it." They moved the store across the highway. It was a small building, about 14 by 24 feet. Under the side porch awning, the Williamson's sold the melons they had grown on their farm. Williamson sold the store to M.S. and Opal McCaslin. (Note: The Williamsons lived in Slaughterville for 40 years. Mrs. Williamson ran the Slaughterville Grocery for 40 years.)

Notes for CHARLES HENRY WILLIAMSON:
Charles was raised by foster parents Roy and Jesse Collins in OK City, OK. His mother Elsie died of leukemia. He did not know that John Williamson was his father, he was told that John was his Uncle John. He remembers meeting Ervin Wiliamson when he visted John at the General Store in Slaugherville sometimes between 1941-1943.. He only met Ervin a couple of times but remembers his beautiful two-story farm house and the Navy planes that landed on his farm land for practice landings.

Notes for CLARENCE ELMO WILLIAMSON:
From Reva Hance: Told to me by my aunt Ruth Yarborough. Stories told to her by Grandpa Williamson, her father. STORY: There was a red-headed woman that was the daughter of a black family that came from GA with grandpa Thomas Jefferson Williamson's family. Not known if they were slaves, free or what. Grandpa called her Aunt Lizzy. Her husbands name is forgotten. Grandpa said she would help deliver his mother's children and they lived near each other. Grandpa also had an Uncle Roe and Aunt Lizzy Manley that lived near or in Pittsburg, TX. He would always talk about their musical abilities and how all their children could play any musical instrument. He liked Uncle Roe's family very much.

Notes for CLARENCE ELMO WILLIAMSON:
From Rosa Hamon: Told to me by my aunt Ruth Vanbourgh. Stories told to her by Grandpa Williamson, her father. 5/27/97: There was a red-headed woman that was the daughter of a black family that came from GA with grandpa Thomas Jefferson Williamson's family. Not known if they were slaves, free or what. Grandpa called her Aunt Lizzy. Her husband name is forgotten. Grandpa said she would help deliver his mother's children and they lived near each other. Grandpa also had an Uncle Joe and Aunt Lizzy Manley that lived near or in Pittsburg, TX. He would always say that those musical abilities and how all their children could play any musical instrument. He liked Uncle Joe's family very much.

Notes for WILLIAM JASPER (JAP) NAVE:
Comments from Doris Greer: New source of further info: Mattie Nave, daughter of Mollie Williamson and Jasper Nave: Matie told Helen Williamson Butler that John Thomas Williamson and her father Jake (Jap) were on a troop ship headed overseas to WWI. John got sick with the 1918 influenza that was a worldwide epidemic and died aboard ship. Jap didn't know he had died until after the war and he was on the same ship. She told Helen that John was a very handsome young man, according to what she'd been told.

I, being Charlene, suspect he was shipped back to AR and then on to Pittsburg Co., Okla. for burial.

Generation No. 3

10. WILLIAM HENRY C.[4] WILLIAMSON (MARY ANN[3] RIGGINS, JAMES[2], PETER[1]) was born 1843 in Pike Co., GA, and died 01 Apr 1890 in Flint River near Neal, Pike Co., GA. He married ELIZABETH FRANCES NEWMAN Abt. 1863 in Upson Co., GA, daughter of DAVID NEWMAN and NICY UNKNOWN. She was born Apr 1848 in Thomaston, Upson Co., GA, and died 15 Mar 1937 in Garvin, McCurtain Co., OK.

Notes for WILLIAM HENRY C. WILLIAMSON:
According to the History of Pike Co., GA 1822-1932 by Lizzie R. Mitchell, T. J. (Thomas Jefferson) Williamson and his brother W.H. (William Henry) were wealthy cotton merchants of Atlanta.

USGenWeb Archives Pike County Newspapers:
Pike County Journal, Zebulon, GA - Tuesday, March 25, 1890: Home Affairs - We have learned that Mr. Henry Williamson who lives near Neal, and who has been in bad health for some time, was seen in a tree last week trying to hang himself. He was persuaded to desist, and on Wednesday night disappeared and no news of his whereabouts can be obtained.

Pike County Journal, Zebulon GA - Tuesday, April 1, 1890: Home Affairs - Up to this time, no news of Henry Williamson has been received. Where he could have gone is a mystery that is no nearer a solution today than when we announced his disappearance.

Later - Since the above was written we learn that the unfortunate man has drowned himself in the Flint River.

She married (1) THOMAS JEFFERSON SR. WILLIAMSON 02 Mar 1894 in Zebulon, Pike Co., GA, son of ZACHARIAH WILLIAMSON and MARY JORDAN. He was born 01 Nov 1874 in GA, and died 27 Oct 1951 in Leesburg, Camp Co., TX. She married (2) LEWIS LEAB (BIB) BIRDSONG 05 Mar 1900 in Pike Co., GA, son of EMMITT BIRDSONG and MOLLY HUNT. He was born Jul 1876 in Griffin, Spaulding Co., GA[23], and died 1934 in Rusk, Cherokee Co., TX.

Notes for THOMAS JEFFERSON SR. WILLIAMSON:
According to Doris Greer: Thomas J. Williamson first married his first cousin named Julia A. Williamson on March 2, 1894 in Zebulon, Pike Co., GA. Her father was William Henry and Thomas's father was Zachary Taylor. She and Thomas had a child named Emmett Eugene born Aug. 22, 1890 in Molena, Pike Co., GA. In my further research I found they had another child. His name was Carl, born Jan 1900 in Pike Co., GA. With a lot of figuring and double checking I discovered that Julia was 2 mos. pregnant with Carl when Thomas J. married grannie Ellen. It's unclear when he and Julia divorced. Grannie Ellen was 5 mos. pregnant with aunt Mollie when they married. So he had two women with child at the same time and two children born in 1900. I don't know how he kept from getting killed by some of the two ladies families. Grannie Ellen divorced him in 1918 and went to OK. They had moved to TX, I'm guessing from GA. From all accounts of family lore, he was a hard drinking man that would get very mean when drunk and beat her and the children. These folks all lived near Neal and Molena in Pike Co., Ga. before migrating to TX. He married a third time to a lady named Belle bn. Jan. 12 1889 and died June 27, 1957.

Notes for REBECCA ANN (ANNIE) (BECKY) HISAW:
Per Genell Smart, daughter of Addie Lee Hisaw Smart, she never heard her mother talk about Rebecca's marriage to James Parnell. During the summer of 1925 Uncle Frank Hisaw brought, Rebecca, Ruby, Everett and Ervin out to Texaco to visit them. She remembers that Rebecca took her own life not too long after she went home from visiting Addie's family. Addie did not go to the funeral. Genell remembers Aunt Annie looking so crest fallen, unhappy and quiet while there. Genell tried to be a good host to Everett and Ervin and making bubbling drinks "soda pop". She remembers they were all alone in the dining room and kitchen and they got a glasses and put water, sugar and vinegar in them and stirred it up and then added a little soda to make it fizz. They drunk it fizzing as they laughed and played.

Genell remembers when the telegram came telling of Rebecca's death the summer of 1925. Addie did not go to Rebecca's funeral.

vi. BERTIE MAE WILLIAMSON, b. 20 Jun 1910, Red Oak, Ellis Co., TX; d. 31 Oct 1917, Kaufman Co., TX.

Notes for BERTIE MAE WILLIAMSON:
Per Genell Smart Carver, daughter of Addie Lee Hisaw Smart (Rebecca's sister), Addie was present at the time Bertie Mae died. Rebecca "Aunt Annie", Bertie's mother, and Addie had been washing and boiling clothes in a big black iron pot outside and hanging clothes on the line to dry. They thought the fire was out and was resting under some trees then went into the house. Genell was about three and Bertie was seven, Genell's brother Captain Jack was six, Everett who was older than Genell were all playing outside. Ervin and her little brother J.B. were too young to play outside- she doesn't remember. The fire had gone down but still had some hot coals and somehow Bertie's dress caught on fire on the back side. Genell was near and saw Bertie afire. She doesn't remember moving or hollering, she was just transfixed. Bertie took off running when she felt the fire and started running around the house and screaming and ran back towards the front door. Rebecca and Addie heard the screams and ran out the back door. Addie ran to Bertie and fell on her and tried to rip the dress and clothes off of her. Aunt Annie was frozen and couldn't move. Addie mentioned later how little girl's dresses those days were all buttoned down the back. Addie had noticed that Bertie's dress was not buttoned straight and that little bit sticking out at the bottom more easily would catch fire. Addie and Rebecca made an old time plaster remedy of paste made with soda, flour, vinegar and lard and put it all over Bertie's body and wrapper her in a sheet. Addie had to run across a pasture to a neighbor's house where there was a phone and called the doctor who came to the house. Bertie lived for a few days before she died as a result of the burns.

MARTIN. She was born 12 May 1881 in Pontotoc, Pontotoc Co., MS to Martillus, Lawrenceville, MS, and died Dec 21 Jan – 17 Aug 1923 in Burns City, Rockwall Co., TX.

Notes for Romie Lee Mon (Mon) BRICKEY HAWK:
For Gerald Swan, daughter of Adelle Lee Hines Swan, she never heard her mother talk about Rebecca's marriage to James Powell. Family gossip the reason of 1924 Uncle Frank Hines thought Rebecca, Ruby, Edward and Irvin out to Texas to visit them. Gal remembers that Rebecca took her own life and her body was sent home from visiting Addie. Addie did not go to the funeral. Gerald remembers Aunt Annie looking so great, happy and [illegible]. Gerald told us he a good boy to Bowers and Irvin in and making holding drink "Jack pop". Kids remember they were all alone in the dining room and kitchen and they got a glass and put water, sugar and vanilla in them and stirred it up and then added a little soda to make it fizz. They drank it. Looked as they hungry as I did.

Gerald remembers when the telegram came telling of Rebecca's death the summer of 1923. Addie did not go to Rebecca's funeral.

Notes for GEORGE MAY WILLIAMSON:
For Gerald Swan Crowe, daughter of Adelle Lee Hines Swan (Rebecca's sister), Adelle was present at the time Ernie Ray died. Rebecca Ann Annie, Ruby's mother, and Adelle had been washing and boiling clothes in a big black iron pot outside and heating water on the line to dry. They thought the fire was out and was boiling water about 1 pm when they were too tired. Gerald was about three and there was a young Cecil's house Cecil's house lock was on, Gerald was older than Gerald were all playing outside. Ernie and his little brother Lil were too young to play outside. He doesn't remember. The line had gone down in still had some lye and soap and water. Lerlie's clothes caught on fire on the back side. Gerald was near and saw them. She started screaming trying to put it out, she was just running. Ernie was all running when she left the fire and started running around the house and screaming and ran back towards the house. Rebecca and Adelle have to account and ran out the back door. Adelle ran to Ferris and left on her and tried to rip the clothes and burning all of her. Aunt Annie was frozen and couldn't move. Adelle mentioned baby was three years old. Gerald remembers there was all scattered down the road. Adelle had noticed the flames. Annie was not focused straight and that little lil was out in the bedroom never really would catch the clothes and Rebecca made up old time pioneer enough or were made with rods. Ernie, younger and had not gone to all over Ernie's body and weren't for a short. Adelle had to run across a pasture to a neighbor's house where there was a phone and called the doctor who came to the house. Ernie lived for a few days before she died on a mean of the house.

PETER[1]) was born 01 Nov 1874 in GA, and died 27 Oct 1951 in Leesburg, Camp Co., TX. He married (1) BELLE. She was born 12 Jan 1889, and died 27 Jun 1957. He married (2) JULIA ANN WILLIAMSON 02 Mar 1894 in Zebulon, Pike Co., GA, daughter of WILLIAM WILLIAMSON and ELIZABETH NEWMAN. She was born 20 May 1873 in Pike Co., GA, and died 26 Apr 1961 in Rusk, Cherokee Co., TX. He married (3) ELLEN PILKINTON 23 Jun 1899 in Pike Co., GA, daughter of JOHN PILKINTON and SARAH TAYLOR. She was born 07 May 1870 in Upson Co., GA, and died 10 Aug 1958 in Pittsburg Co., OK.

Notes for THOMAS JEFFERSON SR. WILLIAMSON:
According to Doris Greer: Thomas J. Williamson first married his first cousin named Julia A. Williamson on March 2, 1894 in Zebulon, Pike Co., GA. Her father was William Henry and Thomas's father was Zachary Taylor. She and Thomas had a child named Emmett Eugene born Aug. 22, 1890 in Molena, Pike Co., GA. In my further research I found they had another child. His name was Carl, born Jan 1900 in Pike Co., GA. With a lot of figuring and double checking I discovered that Julia was 2 mos. pregnant with Carl when Thomas J. married grannie Ellen. It's unclear when he and Julia divorced. Grannie Ellen was 5 mos. pregnant with aunt Mollie when they married. So he had two women with child at the same time and two children born in 1900. I don't know how he kept from getting killed by some of the two ladies families. Grannie Ellen divorced him in 1918 and went to OK. They had moved to TX, I'm guessing from GA. From all accounts of family lore, he was a hard drinking man that would get very mean when drunk and beat her and the children. These folks all lived near Neal and Molena in Pike Co., Ga. before migrating to TX. He married a third time to a lady named Belle bn. Jan. 12 1889 and died June 27, 1957.

Notes for CLAUDE W. WILLIAMSON:
Notes from Doris Greer: I remember Uncle Claude very well. He was a giant of a man standing well of 6 ft. and more with a big built frame. I don't think he ever married or had children. But he loved all us kids and would take us every year to town and buy us a suit of clothes. Us being me and my two bros. and sister and the children of Randolph Williamson, my dad's brother. His children being Helen, Marie, Robert and Randy. We could pick out whatever we wanted, but the girls had to get dresses. He said we should dress like litle ladies. Of couse we wanted pants but to him a little girl should wear a dress. He would always give us a big bear hug and pat you on the head everytime he'd see us. He was so powerful he'd nearly drive your head down in your shoulders, but we loved it and him. I remember one time I had a bad tooth and had to go to the dentist. I'd never been and was scared to death and crying. He gave me $10.00 if I wouldn't be scared and stop crying. That's the kind of gentle man he was. His nicknames were I-God and Pie.

Says pistol trigger pulled unconsciously; Coy Abbott Taken Back To Brownfield by Officers; Wife Made No Statement To Officers. Coy Abbot, 20-year-old farmer living near Brownfield, yesterday afternoon made a statement to local officers in which he said that he accidentally shot his 18-year-old wife at their home Sunday night. Mrs. Abbott died of the wound yesterday afternoon at the Lubbock sanitarium. Abbott was arrested here by Deputy Sheriff Vernice Ford and Sheriff P.M. Ellington of Terry County after the death of Mrs. Abbott. Abbott at first said that his wife had shot herself accidentally, but after being questioned for four hours by Deputy Ford and Sheriff Ellington, he said that he had shot her. Abbott said that the shooting took place "between sundown and dark" on his farm about 16 miles from Brownfield. His first story was that he was cleaning out a bureau drawer, and asked his wife to hand him a .38 calibre pistol that was lying on the table. When she was doing this, he said the trigger of the gun caught in her dress and the gun was discharged, the bullet striking her in the abdomen. He later admitted that he had borrowed the gun from a neighbor, and had been playfully snapping the hammer while the gun was unloaded. Later he loaded it, he said, and had it pointed toward his wife when he unconsciously pulled the trigger. He then rushed out and called a neighbor, a Mr. Pollock, and the wounded girl was brought to this city. Officers said that Mrs. Abbott did not make any statement to them regarding the shooting, though she (Page 6 - continued from page 1) was conscious until a few minutes before death. She was brought to the Lubbock sanitarium about about 12:30 A.M. yesterday. The couple have one child, a girl, about two years old. Shortly before Mrs. Abbott died she called her husband in the room and asked him if he would care for their daughter. Upon being assured that he would, she kissed him, dying a few minutes later. Abbott was taken to Brownfield last night by Sheriff Ellington. Funeral arrangements for Mrs. Abbott had not been completed, but she was probably be buried here today. Powell undertakers have charge of the body.

Lubbock Morning Avalanche - March 21, 1928 - Front Page: Murder Charge Is Filed Against Cry Abbott: Guy Wife: Young Husband Does Not Deviate From Story That Shooting Was Accidental, Sheriff Says.
Funeral services for Mrs. Cry Abbott, 18, who died at a local sanitarium Monday afternoon from the effects of a pistol wound in the abdomen received Sunday night, and as a result of which her 20-year-old husband faces a charge of murder, were held yesterday afternoon at Powell undertaking parlors, with interment in the Lubbock cemetery. Her husband, who faces charges of murder following his statement to officers that he accidentally shot her, arrived from Brownfield in company of Sheriff Ellington of Terry county in time to attend the burial services, and was taken back to Brownfield by the sheriff after the conclusion of the rites.

Sticks With Story: Sheriff Ellington said over telephone to The Avalanche last night that Abbott had not deviated from his story of the accidental shooting since he changed his original statement that the girl wife had shot herself accidentally. The shooting occurred in the farm home of the young couple 16 miles from Brownfield. The services yesterday were conducted by Rev. E.E. White, pastor of the First Methodist church here. Mrs. Abbott is survived by her husband, their two-year-old daughter, two brothers and two sisters. Her name before marriage was Ruby Williamson.

60. JOHN HENRY[6] WILLIAMSON (JAMES MONROE (MON)[5], WILLIAM HENRY C.[4], MARY ANN[3] RIGGINS, JAMES[2], PETER[1]) was born 14 Sep 1903 in Hiram, Kaufman Co., TX, and died 26 Jun 1994 in Purcell, McClain Co., OK[49]. He married (1) BESSIE PARNELL[50,51] Abt. 1921 in TX, daughter of JAMES PARNELL and MARY GRAYER. She was born 24 Jul 1903 in Royse City, Rockwell Co., TX, and died Aft. 1957 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma Co., OK. He married (2) ELSIE LINDSEY Abt. 1936 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma Co., OK, daughter of GEORGE LINDSEY and UNKNOWN. She was born Abt. 1915 in TX, and died Bef. 1942 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma Co., OK. He married (3) HELEN LOUISE PIERSON Feb 1942 in OK. She was born 27 Apr 1904 in Hamilton, TX, and died 02 Mar 1992 in Lexington, Cleveland Co., OK.

Notes for JOHN HENRY WILLIAMSON:
Cleveland Co., Record (OK Newspaper) dated 14 Nov 1990: Busy Corner Named After Slaughter Family - Years before anyone thought about incorporating Slaughterville, Jim Slaughter moved his family onto 160 acres at what is now 72nd Ave. SE and Slaughterville Road. They opened a store with two gas pumps on the northeast corner. It became known as Slaughterville Corner. The family has since moved away but the two-story home is still standing east of the highway on Slaughterville Rd. Jess Ketner ran a blacksmith shop next to the store which he worked right up to his death. He had the flu and went to shop to check on things. He promised his wife he wouldn't do anything but a customer came in and Ketner, not wanting to lose a customer, did some work for him. He died that night. Ketner's daughter, Barbara Coles, lives in Noble.

John and Helen Williamson bought the acreage in 1944. Williamson didn't like the way Norman and Lexington were annexing the area so he tried to incorporate the area. When his lawyer told him it would cost over $300, he decided not to pursue it. The area was annexed into Slaughterville on March 22, 1972. Other businesses that cropped upon on the corner were a motel, cafe and a beer joint. Williamson had a garage on the corner for a while. He also said there was a dance hall on the corner at one time. Helen Williamson didn't like anything about the beer joint. "I didn't Like the beer business so he moved me across the street." Helen said of the Williamsons moving their store across the highway. "I bet I wiped 20 gallons of blood in that joint," John said. "I got too old to fight so I sold it." They moved the store across the highway. It was a small building, about 14 by 24 feet. Under the side porch awning, the Williamson's sold the melons they had grown on their farm. Williamson sold the store to M.S. and Opal McCaslin. (Note: The Williamsons lived in Slaughterville for 40 years. Mrs. Williamson ran the Slaughterville Grocery for 40 years.)

Notes for CLARENCE ELMO WILLIAMSON:
From Reva Hance: Told to me by my aunt Ruth Yarborough. Stories told to her by Grandpa Williamson, her father. STORY: There was a red-headed woman that was the daughter of a black family that came from GA with grandpa Thomas Jefferson Williamson's family. Not known if they were slaves, free or what. Grandpa called her Aunt Lizzy. Her husbands name is forgotten. Grandpa said she would help deliver his mother's children and they lived near each other. Grandpa also had an Uncle Roe and Aunt Lizzy Manley that lived near or in Pittsburg, TX. He would always talk about their musical abilities and how all their children could play any musical instrument. He liked Uncle Roe's family very much.

Notes for CLARENCE ELMO WILLIAMSON:
From Reva Hance: Told to me by my aunt Ruth Yarborough. Stories told to her by Grandpa Williamson, her father. STORY: There was a red-headed woman that was the daughter of a black family that came from GA with grandpa Thomas Jefferson Williamson's family. Not known if they were slaves, free or what. Grandpa called her Aunt Lizzy. Her husbands name is forgotten. Grandpa said she would help deliver his mother's children and they lived near each other. Grandpa also had an Uncle Roe and Aunt Lizzy Manley that lived near or in Pittsburg, TX. He would always talk about their musical abilities and how all their children could play any musical instrument. He liked Uncle Roe's family very much.

Notes for WILLIAM JASPER (JAP) NAVE:
Comments from Doris Greer: New source of further info: Mattie Nave, daughter of Mollie Williamson and Jasper Nave: Matie told Helen Williamson Butler that John Thomas Williamson and her father Jake (Jap) were on a troop ship headed overseas to WWI. John got sick with the 1918 influenza that was a worldwide epidemic and died aboard ship. Jap didn't know he had died until after the war and he was on the same ship. She told Helen that John was a very handsome young man, according to what she'd been told.

I, being Charlene, suspect he was shipped back to AR and then on to Pittsburg Co., Okla. for burial.

I would not mind at all that you put a copy in the Genealogical Library room. Please put in a comment that not all documentation has been proved. I have family group sheets from several family members of William Henry Williamson and Elizabeth Francis Newman Williamson's descendants which is my direct line. Other sources of information was the census and information from other Riggins researchers. I did not come up with all the information on my on but with help from several other researchers I found on line who were willing to share with me their Riggins connections. This is not my own work entirely, and I don't wish to be given all the credit. Thank you for your interest.

I do have a couple of Texas surnames that have lead me to a dead end, and if you are willing and able to check them out, it would be very helpful.

My paternal grandfather, James Monroe Williamson, moved with his brothers from Pike Co., GA. to Kaufman Co., TX area around 1894. James Monroe (Mun) Williamson was shot and died a few days later on 22 Jun 1917 in Elmo, Kaufman Co., TX. I would like to find some information on the shooting and death. I don't have a name of the shooter but do have a copy of the death certificate.

My paternal grandmother, Rebecca Ann Hisaw Williamson Parnell took arsenic and died a few days later between 17 June - 27 Aug in 1925. I've written to Texas Dept of Health who cannot find a death certificate. She was either living in Rockwall Co. or Kaufman Co. at the time of her death. She is buried in a cemetery near Royce City, Rockwall Co., TX with a tombstone marked Rebecca Ann Williamson.

My maternal grandmother was Nancy Jane Lyons who married a (1) George Norman who had a daughter named Anna Lee Norman born 16 Nov 1874 in Grayson Co., TX. and (2) Frank (?) Smith who Nancy married before 1880 because their first child Jess Coleman Smith was born 22 May 1880, in Denison, Grayson Co., TX. I can find nothing on Nancy Jane Lyons/George Norman nor Nancy Jane Lyons Norman/Frank Smith.

If you run across information on these people, it sure would be a help. Thank you.

Subject: Re: Riggins

My husband thanks you as do I, for all the Riggins info. Just wish that I had as much on the Jordan family:)

You have done a beautiful job of documenting and I'm sure interviewing all these different people for this info. That was a lot of work. Thanks again. I'm soo pleased that you took the time to do your work correctly and not half done as so many that I have seen.

I'm retired from Clayton Genealogical Library here in Houston and would like to put a copy of your Riggins family in their family History room. That is if you have not already given them a copy. If it is o.k. and this is what you would like to have on the shelves, I'll take it over to them soon.

If you have another surname that you are interested in, I would be pleased to check to see if there is a history on that surname in the Library, in the area and time period that you are wanting. Vivian

Dear Cousins:

Mildred Watkins has told me about your interest in the Jordan line and I am certainly looking forward to a visit with you. On my very next trip to Houston I will give you a call and in the meantime I hope we can be more successful in establishing the ancestral parents of John T.

My grand mother was Ann Eliza Jordan - daughter of John T. and Mary Jane Holmes - my mother was

Ann Elizar daughter — and daughter of James Jefferson Beckham and ~~then~~ was named Mary Alice Beckham. She married my father Noah Oscar Thomas in 1893 and they came to Texas soon afterwards —

I went to Rice years ago and was brought up in Center, Texas so I know Hunter well —

Do let me hear from you all and you would be welcome here anytime as my guests. I look forward to meeting you —

Sincerely

N.O.

Dear Mrs Mason -

As a bit late answering your delightful letter - I would enjoy seeing your family tree - I am a descendant of Anne Pope's family - she was the grandmother of Gen - Washington - my grandmother Judith was a cousin of Gen W. her father Thomas Pope her mother was a Hill - Thomas Pope fought in Virginia and later in battle of New Orleans I have never had the family tree traced - Mother was a young child of 10 when the War between the States started - would talk about the family, but as every thing was lost or destroyed - would often say that is the past - My father was the son of Comte de Caylus whose wife was daughter of Lord Montague, governor of the Bahama Islands - her name was Lady Isabella Montague - Comte de Caylus was a cousin

Lanier Data.

Sampson Lanier Sr. son of John Lanier b. by deposition 1688, in Surry Co, Va. and died 1743 Brunswick Co. Va. He and Elizabeth Washington moved to Brunswick Co. in 1734. John Lanier the emigrant lived Charles City County before moving to Prince George Co. between 1700 and 1704 when he appears in the Quit Rent Rolls of that date.

9) John Lanier was not born in St Andrews Parish 1685, as Brunswick Co. was not occupied until about 1727 and not formed until 1732. Hicksford was the extreme frontier of the settlement in 1716.

It is said, without authority, that John Lanier was born in England in 1655. It is possible that he was and his parents might have been that John and Lorenzo Lanier who are registered as coming with Howell Pryce in 1657\8 to Charles City. All records of that county are lost. At any rate John Lanier's will is in Prince George Co.

The Great Book of that time which is perhaps 20 inches wide and 24 inches long, and at least 10 inches thick, has the original will of John Lanier, written in the most beautiful script. Between the signature of John Lanier and the witnesses, someone, perhaps when the will was probated, has written "Had a little girl, died Charles City prior to 1700." John Lanier married Sarah about 1677, after Bacon's Rebellion. I am trying to prove that she was Sarah Sampson, as that family in that area.

8) Elizabeth Washington b. 1687, died after August 25, 1743, her son Thomas, in his will of that date, mentions his mother as living on land (Indigo Pond Branch) which Thomas wills to his brother Jacob. (Elizabeth's death has been confused with Elizabeth, the wife of Richard Washington whose will was proved 1735.)

7) Sampson Lanier married Elizabeth Washington about 1706. Son Arthur d. young, Thomas b. 1708, Sampson b. 1710, Richard b. 1713, Samuel b. 1719, James b. 1724 and Elizabeth b. 1726.

Sampson Jr. married Elizabeth Chamberlain about 1736, he died 1757 and she married second Cuthbert Smith and had a daughter Frances who married Thomas Hill.

6) Rebecca Lanier b. Dec.16,1744, m. 1760 Walton Harris, b. 1739"d. July 20,1809, "at his seat in Greene Co (Ga.) Walton Harris Son.Esq. age 71." From the Georgia Express, Athens, Ga. Aug.5,1809.

Sir John Washington of Thrapstone was the father of John Washington who married Mary Flood-Blunt-Ford. Sir John was the brother of Lawrence whose son John was the emigrant to this country and the ancestor of George Washington.

Would you like me to get this Harris Line ? There is a Harris Genealogy, and many other papers on that family. Let me know.

This Burch family was the "Suingest" family - Martha, Elizabeth's daughter and Samuel's sister, died about 1792 for a slave + descendants that Sampson had left to Elizabeth Burch in 1742/3.

Dear Mrs Mason:

There is so much in your letter to answer this time that I thought it would be easier for you if I typed it. The above clipping from your letter got me worked up to a feverish pitch, thinking and wondering how I could have missed any records - and how many more I might have missed. I certainly am relieved on that score and disappointed that it is not a Thomas Lanier Will.

Mrs Sundivant seems to be greatly interested in gathering together family data and writes the most delightful letters. With her help going back as far as she could remember, Royal has brought her lines down to her grandfather, which was as far back as she knew.

I had started the Flood records on this and then thought it might be better to have them on a separate sheet so that you could file them with your other records on the family.

For your records in the Nicholson Papers, Mary, the wife of George Nicholson, was the relict of Thomas Bird (whose father William Bird was one of the first Justices in Charles City Co. in 1663.) The children of Thomas and Mary? Bird were Thomas, dap. Elizabeth who married John Lanier and Tabitha who married twice, a Jones and a Young.

On your typed papers, beginning "Sampson Lanier", Samuel Burch who is a Plaintiff with Richard Lanier against Richard Burch, is the son of Elizabeth Lanier and John Burch and a grandson of Richard Burch. I am delighted to have some sort of age on him. You can add on those papers which I sent you, that he was born before Oct.24,1727. Perhaps Mr Price will know why Sterling Tucker gave slaves.

Sometime when it is convenient I would like to have those titles of John Flood of 1692 to add to my Great Master of 1624, to have Thomas, John and Mary. From the Great Master taken 21st of January,1624 the inhabitants of Jordans Journey, Charles City, gives William Flood, 3 weeks old.

I hope soon to go down to the Congressional Library and pour over the letters which came in on the Washington Lanier descendents. The lineage was not published in the Washington Bicentennial Book but all those letters are in the Manuscript Room and called the Toner Papers. I expect you would like anything I find on your line. I will find Mr. Lindsay's line there so don't bother or take the time.

I wrote to Hoppin recently at his Box address at Grand Central Station, N.Y. but the letter came back with the notation that the box had been closed and no other address given. Wonder if he is dead.

On a separate sheet I will answer the Lanier data on the gray stationery, presumably from Mrs. Ewing. The errors are too flagrant to go unchecked.

Your published data, which you found about 20 years ago has "burned me up" for a long time. I can tell you a lot about that.

Short quotations from the Washington Ancestry, compiled by Mr. Charles Arthur Hoppin:

From Vol. 1, page 52.

"Thanks are due from all Americans, interested in the preservation of the antiquities in England relating to the home of their ancestors, to T. Pape, F.S.A. for his labors in behalf of the objects of the Washington Memorial Association. (Pape of Newcastle, England.)

Pages of detailed information from records in England are given and the families of the Three Washingtons in Va., are thoroughly gone into.

Vol 1. page 107:

" Sons of Sir John Washington were Mordaunt, John an Philip. John was present in Barbadoes, West Indies in 1654 etc. This John later settled in Surry Co., Va., as first Cousin of Col. John Washington, great grandfather of President George Washington. This Surry John was direct ancestor of the famous Col. Wm. Washingto of South Carolina who defeated the British Commander Tarleton. Among some of the living descendants of John of Surry, are Drusilla L Cravens, a historian of Madison, Ind., Atwood Violett of the Union Club, N.Y. and George Augustine Washington of the same Club and of Wessington, Cedar Hill, Robertson Co., Tenn."

A letter from Hoppin to a relative states "there was no doubt that Mary Flood married John of Surry." When I wrote him asking if it had been finally determined as to parentage of our many times Mary and price of same, his reply was " Yes and he would furnish the data for $50.00." I fortunately located it otherwise Wurtz, The Genealogist has accepted this Flood-Washington data for membership into the Daughters of the Magna Charter, etc.

Data of Welles in the early Virginia Historical and Genealogical Publications gets the Washington and Lanier Families so confused that this work had to be gone into thoroughly both in England and in Virginia to fully establish the line of our President.

I have about 20 pages of data that goes into and proves by authentic records the relationships and different lineages of the 2 cousins, John Washington of Westmoreland and John Washington of Surry Counties and their family connections.

A great deal of confusion was caused by the hard to read records and, too, oftentimes Ffoard was copied Flood, and both spelled according to what the writer might think right.

Dear Mrs Mason;-

We were so delighted to hear from you but sorry to hear that you are suffering from the heat. For the past five years La Porte has turned topsy-turvey on weather and we have been most comfortable. In years gone by, the temperature used to hover around 105 for weeks, once reaching 109½, so we are very grateful for the change.

This past week-end we had gone up into Michigan to see our granddaughter who is in the famous National Music Camp at Interlochen, near Traverse City. The hotel is charming, being of the "old school", dignified; table cloths and napkins still exist, and lovely dinner music. We always get a room that looks out over Grand Traverse Bay - almost as good as the ocean.

Houghton Lake is the largest lake in Michigan, and lies east and south of Traverse City - too bad that you could not have had some of the fresh air from there. In our wandering around Michigan, we have learned that it is quite a state. First in salt, (New York second) tremenduous cherry producing area, ores etc. lumber, and agricultural products from every section.

Do you recall that about a year ago a Mrs Rees of Abilene, Texas wrote to you about the Jordans, and possibly the Laniers? She is now claiming that she is descended from that Jordan family. However, her cousin in Memphis berated her for stealing a line when she had a good one of her own, so she has given up the idea of your Jordan Line. Both women are so full of "tradition" that it is impossible to make them see the truth even with dates to prove a point. Some of their traditions are ludicrous. For instance - Mary Bolling was born 1711 and married Col. John Fleming, yet they insist that Mary's fifth daughter was married to Samuel Jordan in 1703. I just gave up.

What Mrs Woodward are you writing about? The genealogist in Little Rock,Ark? I have been corresponding with her on the Flood - Ford discussion, and sent her six pages of records which I myself copied in Surry. They are additional to those of Dr Douglass, but do not bear directly on this muddle. They clear the age of Thomas Blunt, son of Mary ffoord, and the age of Richard Washington.

I copied, word for word, the marriage contract of John Washington and Mary ffoord. Enclosed is a separate sheet with Mary's name written exactly as in the record. There is not one thing in the entire record to connect her with the Floods. John Washington selected his own friends as witnesses, and they too, are written exactly as in the record.

Dear Mrs Mason:

We were so delighted to hear from you but sorry to hear that you are suffering from the heat. For the past five years a horse has burned topsy-turvey on weather and we have been comfortable. In years gone by, the temperature used to hover around 105 for weeks, once reaching 109°, so we are very grateful for the change.

This past week-end we had gone up into Michigan to see our grandaughter who is in the famous National Music Camp at Interlochen, near Traverse City. The hotel is charming, being of the "old school", dignified; table cloths and napkins still white, lovely dinner music. However, her cousin in Memphis borrowed her about having a line when she had a good one of her own, so she has given up the idea of your Jordan line. Both women are so full of "tradition" that it is impossible to make them see the truth even with dates to prove a point. Some of their traditions are interesting. For instance - Mary Polling was born 1771 and married Col. John Fleming, yet they claim that Mary's fifth daughter was born to Samuel Jordan in 1802. I just gave up.

"Just who cousinhood are you writing about? Had somebody else in little Rock, Ark? I have been corresponding with her on the Jones - Ford discussion, and sent her six pages of records which I myself copied in survey. They are additional to those of the Dunglass, but do not bear directly on this muddle. They other the age of Thomas Blunt, son of Mary Floord, and the age of John and Washington.

I copied, word for word, the marriage contract of John Washington and Mary Floord. Included is a separate sheet with Mary's name written exactly as in the record. There is not one thing in the entire record to connect her with the Floods. John Washington selected his own friends as witnesses, and they too are written exactly as in the record.

Dr Torrence is said to be to blame for the tragic error of writing"Mary Flood". While we were in Surry I had not only Royal examine the name, but Miss Ann Bradbury Peebles, a fine genealogist whom we had driven down with us, and both agreed without the slightest hesitation that the name was ffoord.

The Clerk, quite old and about to retire, and his Deputy, Mrs Savedge (all her name implies) refuse to allow their records to be microfilmed, and not until people can see with their own eyes just what Mary's name really is, is this argument going to stop. The next time we go down there I want to borrow or buy one of those little photostat machines that can be carried in a briefcase and a picture can be made in a few seconds. Then I will scatter the copies abroad.

It is also clear, with records, that Mary Flood, daughter of John Flood, married Benjamin Harrison, 2nd then Benjamin Sidway.

Mrs Nugent, compiler of Patents in"Cavaliers and Pioneers", said that if Mrs Savedge would notarize a statement that the name was Mary"ffoord", she would change the handwritten copy that Dr. Torrence put in the Richmond State Library. So when we return, I will see what I can do to get Mary cleared up.

There is not one record which gives any clue to Mary's identity; she seems closer to the Jordans but no proof has been uncovered yet. After she married Briggs, she named one Briggs son George, and George Jordan was his Godfather.

Mary married Richard Blunt very early in the year of 1656, Thomas was born very early in the month of November 1656; Richard Blunt was dead before 19 Nov,1656 and a record says that "his son was of tender age when he died".

There is no record of her marriage to Charles Ford. He was living 9 April 1657. No record of his death. But deeds show that his land was divided between his two "sons-in-law", Thomas Blunt and Richard Washington.

There is a Mr George Glass in Washington who is a descendant of Thomas Blunt but he does not have any more on Mary than we have. He works in the Congressional Library by day and is a genealogist when he has a bit of leisure.

Concerning the Lanier - Burch marriage,- Elizabeth Burch was the daughter of Richard Burch and his wife Jane; she was the sister of Mary Burch who married Charles Mason, and a sister of John Burch who married Elizabeth Lanier (who married 2nd Thomas Croft.)Richard Burch, in his will, left a generous lot of slaves and some money to Elizabeth Lanier and Mary Mason, and the husbands were his Executors. On the day that Richard Burch's will was probated, 27 July 1772, William Lanier sold to Charles Mason the slaves that his wife had inherited from her father. Soon after that a suit was recorded in Court and dismissed 24 Nov.1772.

Mr Torrence is said to be to blame for the bogie error of writing"Mary Flood". While we were in Surry I had not only Royal examine the name, but Miss Ann Bradbury reeder, a fine genealogist whom we had driven down with us, and both agreed without the slightest hesitation that the name was Floord.

Mary married Richard Blunt very early in the year of 1686. Thomas was born very early in the month of November 1688; Richard Blunt was dead before 13 Nov.1688 and a record says that "his son was of tender age when he died".

There is no record of her marriage to Charles Ford. He was living 3 April 1697. No record of his death. Not doubt but that his land was divided between his two "sons-in-law", Thomas Blunt and Richard Washington.

There is a Mr George Glass in Washington who is a descendant of Thomas Blunt but he does not have any more on Mary than we have. He works in the Congressional Library by day and is a genealogist when he has a bit of leisure.

Concerning the Lanier - Burch marriage, - Elizabeth Burch was the daughter of Richard Burch and his wife Jane; she was the sister of Mary Burch who married Charles Mason, and a sister of John Burch who married Elizabeth Lanier (see married 2nd Thomas Croft.) Richard Burch, in his will, left a generous lot of slaves and some money to Elizabeth Lanier and Mary Mason, and the husbands were his executors. On the day that Richard Burch's will was probated, 27 July 1772, William Lanier sold to Charles Mason the slaves that his wife had inherited from her father. Soon after that a suit was recorded in Court and dismissed. So they

William Lanier was the son of Thomas Lanier (Sampson[2]) and Ann, the daughter of William Maclin. Elizabeth died sometime before he did, his will was written 1798 and probated 1802 by his son John, the eldest son. Again a suit over slaves lasted for six or seven years.

My data I accumulated from deeds, wills and from Court Order books - the latter from the beginning of Brunswick County to about 1838; also my deeds cover that same period. All are copied from the original books, and disclose some very amazing facts. One was that Elizabeth (Washington) Lanier, widow of Sampson[2], was living in N.C. in Sept. 1772.

I had hoped to find the Chancery Records of the suit and see where she was living, but all Chancery records before 1800 are gone. My guess is that she was living with her son James Lanier in Pitt Co. N.C., she might have gone there with him shortly before 1765 when he moved from Brunswick County.

My Lanier family is progressing slowly; I have finished the English line, the three immigrants (but my book will be about John, the second immigrant who was either a nephew or cousin of the first one who preceeded him by about five years) and Robert, the first son, so I am just about to type my "first draft" for the final manuscript. Some of my discoveries are going to be very revolutionary compared to what has appeared in print in the past.

We expect our daughter and her husband next week, they will spend a couple of days with us on their way to Iowa to visit his parents, leaving with us their two black cats, so we will be baby sitters. They will return after Labor Day for another few days with us.

If at any time I can help you, please let me know, I have a wealth of Lanier records which involve other people and some of them might be just what you want. If we are in Washington, I then can look up what you want.

Royal joins me in sending you and Mabel our very best wishes. And did you have a nice birthday? We hope so.

Sincerely

Louise Vaughn H. Ingersoll

William Lanier was the son of Thomas Lanier (Sampson?) and Ann, the daughter of William Moslin. Elizabeth died something before he did, his will was written 1798 and probated 1802 by his son John, the oldest son. Again a suit over slaves lasted for six or seven years.

My Lanier family is progressing slowly; I have finished the English line, the three immigrants (but my book will be about John, the second immigrant who was either a nephew or cousin of the first one who preceeded him by about five years, and Robert, the first son, so I am just about to type my "first draft" for the final manuscript. Some of my discoveries are going to be very revolutionary compared to what has appeared in print in the past.

We expect our daughter and her husband next week, they will spend a couple of days with us on their way to Iowa to visit his parents, leaving with us their two black cats, so we will be baby sitters. They will return after Labor Day for another few days with us.

If at any time I can help you, please let me know. I have a wealth of Lanier records which involve other people and some of them might be just what you want. If we are in Washington, I then can look up what you want.

Royal joins me in sending you and Mabel our very best wishes. And did you have a nice birthday? We hope so.

Sincerely

Dear Rev. Douglass:

Thank You for the check, which came a few days ago. Ihad to Finish up etc. 8try to state very plainly in my letters just what I can do for my clients- what I can prove by authentic records, what is only family tra ditionor or statements, and what I have of circumstantiel evidence, indica ting close relationship and connection between families. Often if you get enough of the last named, even if you do not locate a record proving the exact point, the Patriotic Societies will accept the line.

I do not know if we can ever locate a record, stating definitelythat Mary was a dau. of Capt. Richard Stephens and his wife Elizabeth Percy; and the reason I am willimg to send my very valuable and expensive data a round for so modest a sum, is that I want the co-operation of Mary's descen dants, in trying to establish the line, which is one of the most distinguish ed of Virginia.

It has taken me many years to trace back to Mary, for our family for years have had more than our share of wicked step-mothers and fires-both disastrous for family records, etc. Surry and Sussex originally part of James City County, are ov the greaters importance, for most of the children of the members of the Virginia Company 1609 settled on and around the mou mouth of the James, and especially where Surry County is situatednow.

I am sure you will find that tour Ingram and Simmons were in Va. at an early date. etc. I can send you lists of all Va.& Md. wills proved before 1800, with name of County and date of probate. Many of these canbe obtained from the Va. State Library, photostat copies at a modest fee, if you send date, name, and County.

Copied all of letter I cared for.

George and James Simmons of Lauderdale Co. must have been kinsmen of my ancestor, John P. Norvell (name really Neuville, often spelled Nevill, Norvelle, Norville, Noval, Norrell and various other ways) He appointed Geor Simmons and Benjamin Ingram Ex. of his will; and as he left every thing to his 2nd wife, Edie Gibson, and her infant twin sons, Spencer and JohnWesley-anM the children of his first wife, represented by the oldest son, JamesTNor vell and two sons-in-law, Wm. C. Mayfield and James Read (my gr. grandfather) contested the will, but without success. The will was probated Nov. 3, 1830

Ido not know whether Edie Gibson was maid or Widow, nor her parentage, but she must have been of the Gibson family kin to Miss. Sallie Lee Lightfoot, she was not of my branch of Gibsons. A dau. of Jas. Read (Reed, Reid) Kather-ine Delia Read mar. Robert Lightfoot, brother of Sallie Lee's ancestor 1/2 In 1850, Spencer Norvell was living in Pontotoc County Miss. with his broth er James T. Norvell. The next year when Spencer came of age he sold his property in Lauderdale Co. to a kinsman, Wm. Butler, the property described a as being left him by his father, John P. Norvell. The census proves family t tradition that John P. Norvell was living in Giles Co. Tenn. 1820 and moved into Ala. soon after. His son m. an heiress, Martha Eliz. Carter, and they bou bought the :orvell property and moved back and lived in Tenn. until about 1849, when they moved into Miss. 1st wife of John P. Norvell not known, though several names have been given by elderly people H Booth, Rose, Mau-ry, de Graffenreid, etc.

/version → Next I want to tell you that John Washington was one of the 5 husbands of Mary Stephens, ? my ancestress. Ihave spent a large fortune getting valuable records proven, some very interesting things about this line. My great grandfather-mother, Lucretia Tucker Chappell, who mar St. George Randolph, when left a widow, moved to Athens Ala., with her sister Mary who m. Thomas Chappell Malone, their double 1st cousin.

Dear Rev.Douglass:

Found You for the check, which came a few days ago. Just to finish up etc. Sorry to state very plainly in my letters just what I can do for my clients- what I can prove by authentic records, what is only family tradition or statements, and what I have of circumstantial evidence, tending close relationship and connection between families. Often if you get enough of the last named, even if you do not locate a record proving the exact point, the Patriotic Societies will accept the line.

I do not know if we can ever locate a record, stating definitely that Mary was a dau. of Capt.Minnard Stephens and his wife Elizabeth Perry; that the reason I am willing to send my very valuable and expensive data around for so modest a sum, is that I want the co-operation of Mary's descendants, in trying to establish the line, which is one of the most distinguished of Virginia.

It has taken me many years to trace back to Mary, for our family for years have had more than our share of wicked step-mothers and fire-brand ancestors for family records, etc. Mary and Susan are typically part of these City County, one of the greatest impossibilities, for the middle of the Virginia Colony, 1700 to 1800 in Virginia, especially where Surry County is situated.

I am sure you will find that your Ingram and Simmons were in Va. at an early date, etc. I can send you lists of all Va.& Md. wills proved before 1800, with name of County and date of probate. Many of these cannot be located from the Va. State Library, photostat copies at a nominal fee, if you send date, name, and County.

Copied all of letter I served for.

George and James Simmons of Lauderdale Co. must have been cousins of my ancestor, John F.Norvell, perhaps possibly Nephews, either sons of his brother, Norville, Norvell, Norvell, Norvell and various other spellings, Norville, Novel, Norvell, Norvell, Norvell

Lucretia had only 3 children Thomas Jefferson Randolph(mayor of Vicksburg for many yers), Susannah (m.her cousin Zachery Wingfieldor Winfield),and my grandfather Joseph Tucker Randolph,who in 1843 in Lawrence Co. Ala.,m. Susannah Marion Read,dau.of James & Jane (Norvell)Read,and sister of Aunt Delia,who m.Robert Lightfoot.They moved into Miss. My Gibsons,Randolphs, and the Stephens family owned adjoining plantations near where Columbus and Starksville Miss.are.my aunt,Frances Eliz.Gibson m.John Alexander Stevens;he told me thet my great grand mother,Lucretia,always claimed kinship with him andtold him that one of her Briggs ancestors m.a sister of Gov. Samuel Stevens of N.C.(other members of the family said she was his daughter)

Ihave worked overthis Chappell-Briggs-Malone-Wynne -Stevens connection for EP years,and employed several gen.to help me gey it cleared up. Our line would come down from the famous Abraham Piersey(Pierce,Percy) one of whose dau.,Eliz.m.1stCapt Richard Stevens,children,Richard,Thomas, Governor Samuel,Mary and George,who was Burgess from Surry Co. where Mary lived.Ihave records proving that Mary M.1st Richard Blount(Blunte)ancestor of many distinguished Blounts.2ndly she m.Capt Thomas Flood;3rdly John Washington;4thly Charles Ford(Fort)and 5thly my ancestor Henry Briggs,Vestryman of Southwark Parish,Colonial soldier and official Interpreter to the Indians.Henry Briggs is descended from the most famous of early Mathematicians,writer of many Books,and Inventor of a certain kind of Logarithm His Grfather was a prominent member of the Virginia Courtin London.His wi will is preserved mentioning his srepsons he married a 3rd wife,after Mary's death-Margary Gilliam,wid. of John Gilliam. Mary had 4 sons to live to maturity- Thomas Bluonte,Richard Washington,Samuel and George Briggs. I(mrs Pleasants) descends from Samuel Briggs. I have abstracts of Jordan wills etc.Have abstacts of wills in Eng.,showing connection Washington Spencer,Thornton,and Anderson families. Wants $10.00 for copy of her data Ishall quote a few prices so you may know how they run- Henry Briggs,1686 70¢,George Briggs,1698/9 30¢

Samuell Briggs,1737-$1.00 Henry Briggs,1738,$1.00

Mary Bonner in Sussex,1754- 70¢,Ishall probaly order all of these as they are all my ancestors ,except Geo.Briggs ,who was brother to my ancestor. Iwant entire copies with all legal matter attached .In old days,no one wa ever asked to act as witnesses,God-parents,Securities,Executors,and similar positions of honor and responsibilities except kinspeople;and property was seldom ever sold out of the family connection-so all names attached to any transactionare important to have,in trying to find out a list of kin. Your Simmons were kin ti my Reads and Lightfoots I am sure,and were in Brunswick Co.Will of Wm.Simmons,Surry 1693,May be earlier under Semmes,or Simms. Many of our Virginians lived in Maryland for a few generations,during the time Berkely was making things so unpleasant for all except his money-grabbing clique.

In the royal lineages,the name Ingram, is spelled Echyngham,In the Carter - Ludlow line,Thomas Baron Echyngham had a dau.Margaret whomarried Wm.Blunte(Blount),which is very interisting in view of the fact that in Surry,the Ingram,Blunt,and Ludlow families were Kinspeople,shown by Va.records. Mrs Pierrepont copied from the Albermarle Parish Reg. of Surry and Sussex all data of Randolph, Chappell,Malone,& Tuckers

Mrs Pleasants states; J.Rives Childs,in "Reliqes of the Rives" pub.by J.P.Bell and Co.Lynchburg,gives a full account of Briggs Family & states "henry Briggs m.2ndly,Mrs Mary Ford,Widow successively of Richard Blount, Thomas Flood,John Washington,and Charles Ford.Mr.Nicholson wrote me that he had examined personally and has copies of all records proving these 5 husbands,without a shadow of a doubt.

We also find that a Thomas Wrenn who d. 1775, speaks of dau. Rebecca Washington. John Washington mar. contract was witnessed by Ben Sidway, John Allen John Flood, Thomas Flood, Edmund Shipham. This Thomas Flood was said to have been a nephew of of Capt Thomas Flood, though some say he might have been a son by a wife. Thomas Flood m. previous to his m. to Mary.
He is called Capt. in records.

Charles Ford had a pat. May 19-1638, joining on East John Flood, which escheated to King etc. In early records Friend meant kin, usually cousins and in-laws, while cousin most frequently meant nephews and nieces.
A servant was not a menial, but any one employed by another. Sons of the most powerful families were apprenticed to learn a trade or profession, teachers doctors "assintances. Men called their own nephews and nieces servants if they were working for them in any capacity. Lord Baltimore called his young kinsman, John Langford, (the brilliant attorney, whose articles defending Baltimore are still preserved) a servant, although he was right next to Lord B. in power in Maryland affairs. I have had clients who refused to trace their ancestry, after they came across an item calling one of them a servant
It is so pitifully amusing, and they feel the same way about bought headrights
Some of the highest officials are given as headrights. Every time a person came to Va., he was granted headrights, the land usually located in newly opened counties, where people didn't especially care to own land, unless they were land speculators, so they either turned the land over to kinspeople or in exchange for passage money, or sold to head-right brokers, always stationed at ports with offers to pay passage in exchange for this land. Even if a man went abroad every year as an inducement for him to return, he was listed as a new comer and granted head-rights. many do not know this and think their ancestors came to Va. much later than they actually arrived.

I am very anxious to know definitely if there is any record which gives Christian name of Mary"s second husband as Thomas. We know definitely he was a Flood, and reliable searchers say he was Capt. Thomas Flood. Capt Thomas Flood was the-Husband-of-- brother of Mary 1st wife of the 1st Ben Harrison, who after her husbands death m Ben Sidway, who was witness for m. contract. The younger Thomas Flood she made Guardian for Ben. Harrison, Jr. Mary Sidway d 1687/8, leaving son Thomas Sidway. It is said the name Nathaniel came into the-family-Harrison family from the Flood family, and I have wondered if this Nathaniel Flood could have been Mary"s husband.

We find there using the spelling Randolf, Randolf, Ralf(the name that Tenant Folk, a Norfolk,later Surry also)corresponded the spelling to Randolph,Randolph.

Sir John was very fond of the pompous Latin Rodu-Randolphus, which may have given him the idea of using Randolph. 8t it said that wherever the Randolph spellingis used before 1700, the modern spelling has substited for the ancient in recopying records .Gov. Edmund Randolph did not spell his name Ranrolph in his marriage bond, and all the old original manuscripts diaries of the family spell the name every way, except Randolpnh. It is also significant that in the list of members of the Va. Company for 1609, and on-no name Randolph appears but we do find Richard Reynold and Henry Reynolds, the name of the early ancestors, who owned land in Va. Many refused to adopt the name but used for Christian name, and we find Randolph Reynolds in Va. My ancestors adopted it before the Rev. Sometimes father is Randell and son Randolph.

In Henings Statutes of VA., At Large, Vol. 1; Richards Stevens is always called Captain, and he like others won the title in the numerous expeditions against the Indians or in defending their homes from attack. His name is signed to all documents as a member of the Royal Council 1631/2, with Governer, Sir John Harvie presiding. Either Stevens or Stephens, and Harvey or Harvie Richards Stevens was Member of the Council and Commissioner for Warwick River Settlement. some of the members of the Council were, Gov. An interesting old record mentioned on p.37-of Family Records-Chronicle and Kinship, by Octavia Z. Bons, states that an old deed is preserved in Surry Co. dated June-30-1634, reciting the-the conveyance of Smith's Fe Fort and other lands in Surry, from Thomas Rolfe to Wm. Corker, describing the land as "the property of Thomas Rolfe by gift of the Indian King."

"I hope you will get some help from this material, and should I ever find a definite proof that Mary was the d. of Capt Richard Stevens, I shall send it to you free of charge; or if I get proof of any other couple being her parevts, for sometimes family tradition is not absolutely accurate, although in this case, I have a feeling, that my great grandmother, Lucretia, was correct, and other Gen. with whom I have discussed it seem to be of the same opinion."

Hi Vivian,
My name is Jena Bradley - I am related to Hooten, Kidd, Shaw and just recently found Riggins in my ancestory. The Jordan name crops up now and then when my mother and I discuss genealogy – are you also related to the Johnsons? My mother is daughter of Col. R. C. Johnson from Zebulon.

Moses Kidd & Cary Powers' daughter, Susannah married James Hooten and their son Rev. Enoch married Sara Shaw. Minnie Hooten, daughter of Enoch and Sara, married Gen. David Dominick. It is on the Dominick side I found a Riggins (Barsheba Riggins b. 1815-1820? m. David Dominick and after David's death in 1942 she married Robert Pilkenton). Do you have any information on her and/or her parents, James and Polly Riggins (b. abt. 1800)?

I don't know if I have anything that would help you, but I'm happy to share what I have and keep a lookout for information along the way.

Hope to hear from you,
Jena

Hi!
I am a novice at this, but I am a member of the Holmes-Jordan family also. My gg grandfather was W (I think William) C Holmes of Barnesville, GA. His wife was Martha J Jordan. If you will look in the US Gen Web for Lamar County, GA you can find a list of cemeteries in that area. Lamar County was created in about 1920 from Monroe and/or Pike counties. Martha J Jordan was born about 1833, but I don't know where. W C Holmes was born in 1824 (don't know where), but I do know that his father was Josiah Holmes, who was born about 1788. Josiah was married to Amelia, and founded the Methodist Church in Barnesville. All are buried in the Greenwood Cemetery in Barnesville. There are several cemeteries listed in the Lamar County GenWeb with members of the Holmes and Jordan families. Directions are given to the cemeteries. Josiah had at least four children. Their names were John, born about 1817, James, born about 1821, W C, born 12/4/1824, and Frances, born about 1831. I have documented most of this through my grandmother, who died last year at 99 years of age. She remembered her grandfather, W C, and had been told alot about her family. I also have an obituary written about W C, who died in 1906. The obituary listed his brothers and sister who were still living when he died.
I have been to Greenwood Cemetery in Barnesville, but only to the plot where Josiah and W C are buried. I did not realize that so many other members of the Holmes-Jordan family were buried there until I found it on the internet. Hope this helps you find your husband's folks. All the people I have talked to in Monroe, Pike and Lamar Counties have been nice and helpful to me.
